several good goals off end and through.

With the exception of Delafoss (cap-pal), the Alley men made an exclamatory goal for one. Delafoss was for for the star to the visitors. Rice’s through broken fields and over interference as threatened the Rice goal and once it was as nessed as though he was to cross the goal regardless of the fighting Delafoss. Delafoss regained one of the the punt from midfield to Rice’s own sixteen yard line.

During the first quarter Rice was unable to get over but for one touchdown. This was done when Pennbacker circled end for fifteen yards.

By a continuous stream of ends runs by Davo, Drummond, Pennybacker and Clyde, together with the heavy line plumbing of Blues Rice men were able to score another touchdown in the second period and Clyde kicked goal.

In the third quarter Drummond featured in returning one of Allen’s punts through a broken field for sixty yards, taking the pigskin over the goal’s for the third touchdown. Drummond kicked goal, score, $3-0.

Rice scored almost at will during the last quarter. Both teams resisted to scoring cause during this period and both were quite successful in the serial tides.

The scores kept piling the score of progressively during this quarter, and at the final sound of the whistle Rice led the score totaling 43 points.

W. D. Bright, C. E., '17, made a very interesting and comprehensive talk on the subject of the Quebec Bridge, which is being built across the St. Lawrence River near Quebec, Province of Quebec.

It was pointed out that faulty design was responsible for the collapse of the old bridge, which occurred while being built in 1907, and that the request for the new bridge, a long span of which fall into the St. Lawrence River mouth, while being raised.

It was stated that the faulty design in the collapse of the first bridge attempted in 1907, but that the recent loss of a span from the new bridge was due to an unforeseen and unavoidable accident in construction.

The meeting then adjourned to Herman Park, where two hundred free admission tickets were distributed.
The tickets were distributed by the Park, and they were used smiling over the tickets. Tabies and banquets were forthcoming from the park, and the members spent an enjoyable evening.

Mr. Lovett addressed the men on the committee on executive management for the One-and-Two Care, for the shop of the Conscience.

The One-and-Two Care was one of the ployment. Their members
