On January 31 the subject of the Y. W. C. A. was "Christianity—What It Means to Us and What It Means to the Soldier," Misses Katharine Lubbeck and George Marshall Drury making very interesting speeches. Miss Otto Pearson introduced with her story of how kindly she was treated in Austin, how much good she had done there, and the conference meeting in progress.

On February 1 the Y. M. C. and Y. W. Club held their meetings in the faculty chamber, Chaplain Cavett of the 108th Engineers, Capt. Lear, made a simple and direct talk to the faculty as well as to the girls. Mr. Tom Drummond made a short address.

Every girl in this institute is invited and urged to come to the Y. W. meetings and give a chance to show you what we can do.

Now, girls, don't forget Thursday, the 10th at 10:30, bring your lunch and end listen.

ELIZABETH BALDWIN SOCIETY.

The Elizabeth Baldwin Literary Society recently discussed Henry Isaacs' "The Lady from the Sea," at the regular meeting of February 4. This was the first time the society had considered one of Ibsen's psychological plays, and the contrast drawn between "The Lady from the Sea" and "The Doll's House," which was studied only recently, was very interesting.

The discussion was very ably conducted by Miss John, who gave a synopsis of the play and pictured the characters in a delightful manner. Various interpretations, which greatly increased our understanding of the play, were offered by the members.

The Elizabeth Baldwin Literary Society for February 11 consisted of naturalistic dramas on such vital subjects as "What Shall I Wear?" Shakespeare's, "Danae," "Women's Suffrage," "Decision Rights" and "Hot Flashes." Several questions of deep interest were debated with outstanding power. The question, "Resolved, That private property should not own more than livestock," was one issue in the game for which the girls were well prepared, and it was decided in favor of the privateers, to the obvious reason that privates are more plentiful.

On February 7 the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. held their monthly meeting at the City Auditorium. A number of questions relating to the peace conference to be held first in Paris and then in the city of Geneva, and the means of putting it into practice, were discussed.

President Burnick has been a member of this society for a number of years and has acquired a great amount of information in the field of international politics, which he is always willing to share with the members of this society. He is recognized by all the members as the only referee competent to fill this position, and has been pledged the support of all the members of the society.

F. J. W. C. A.

On February 1, Mrs. Maria Malmstrom invited the Y. W. C. A. and out-of-town girls to a special luncheon. Misses Malmstrom's, Mr. Tom Burnett, Mr. Tom Burnett, and Mrs. Orchard were present; the girls shared the experiences of the guests who had been to the peace conference to be held first in Paris and then in the city of Geneva, and the means of putting it into practice.

"Make it Snappy"

Commands the officer—in fact doing things with a snap is the very first lesson in military discipline.

Our uniforms for students conform to this rule—they're made "snappy" with all the spirit of militiamen tailored right in them.

That's why Rice Students like 'em so well.

Regulation Serge, Wool and Khaki Uniforms, Steetson Service Hats, Puttees, Shirts, Hat Cords, Chevrons and Buttons.

To the Old Girl of Morning—

When you passed from the campus, I could not believe you

For in my heart I heard the clanging of the bell

And the voice of your name rang out above the rustling of the leaves

But now it is only a memory

And the time was short, and the days were few

But if you should return, I will still be here

For I too have graduated from our alma mater

And we shall meet again in the spirit of old times

The Thresher prize.

So what is the use of being such a small fellow?

For I too have graduated from our alma mater

And we shall meet again in the spirit of old times
