HOST OF GREAT FOOTBALL MEN DUE BACK AT RICE NEXT FALL

FAMOUS STARS OF PAST YEARS MAKING PLANS TO PLAY WITH 1919 OWLS

"Will be Heaviest, Fastest and Best Team Rice Ever Had" says Arbuckle--Vance, Drummond, Rudd, Brick, Dair, Jarvis and Others Will Make Great Squad

All will be heard of the Owls, that was a football team. It was the Owls who marked in 1899 a path of tradition unbroken that wonderful machine, and it is expected that the Owls will be as good this year as they have ever been, no matter what handicap the new Owls may face. There were two teams who made the Owls proud, and now, the Owls have two teams, and it is expected that the best of the new teams will make up for the

Many Prizes Open to All Rice Students

Several Cups and Medals to Be Awarded May Not Be Open to Those Lack of Interest in "Venus"

Several medals and cups are contested for by the Owls each year, for they have been donated by various classes in the University. There is no question that the Owls have had the use of many splendid prizes, but there have been few occasions when the Owls were open to the general public, nor have there been many occasions when the Owls were able to participate in the best interests of the Owls. The Owls have been well satisfied with the Owls, and it is expected that the Owls will be able to participate in the Owls' interests in the future, for the Owls are looking forward to the Owls' future with great joy.

EDWARDS RECEIVES PH. D. DEGREE FROM CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

L. P. Edwards, of the history department, was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Chicago, in the College of Liberal Arts, on Monday, March 15, 1919. The degree was awarded in recognition of his contributions to the field of history, and in particular his work on the history of the United States. Edwards received his Bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago in 1915, and his Master's degree in 1917. He has been a member of the history department at the University of Chicago since 1917. He is currently a professor of history.

J. T. McCants will have charge of the football team, and the following task of securing advertisements. A few questions were asked about the future of the Owls, and Edwards declared that he was willing to support the Owls in any way he could. He also declared that he was willing to support the Owls in any way he could, and that he was willing to support the Owls in any way he could. CO-EDS SECURE CORNER ON RICE SCHOLARSHIPS

The co-eds almost have a corner on the scholarships that are given at Rice. There are ten co-eds that are holding scholarships right now. This is an unusual happening of war little was done by the association during the war, but it is said that it is because of the Senior class that has returned from war that the Rice has ever had scholarships in any amount from $200 to $360.

The first scholarship to be presented was the scholarship of Francis Turner. The late Mr. Turner of Fort Worth; Theodore C. Helsig, Houston; Herbert A. Bailey, New Orleans; Mrs. Ethel Morgan Ford, Houston; Tillie Pauline Stowe, Nashville, Tenn.; Willie Victor Briant, Fort Worth; May Aurelia Speer, Houston; Roberta Alexander Johnson, Dallas; Dorothy Brand and Messrs. J. H. Shaw, Houston, were members of the Senior class that have given the co-eds scholarships.

Most of Men in Senior Class Only Recently Returned From Army Corps.

Most of the men of the 1915 Senior class have returned from war. The Senior class of 1915 had only ten members in it before the war started. There are no co-eds in the Senior class members at this time. Six of the Senior class members returned from war and four of them have returned from war and are in school now.

The graduates that followed, as well as the Senior class before, were given scholarships. This is an unusual happening of war little was done by the association during the war, but it is said that it is because of the Senior class that has returned from war that the Rice has ever had scholarships in any amount from $200 to $360.

Host of Great Football Men Due Back at Rice Next Fall

The recent victory over Texas will bring back two of the most valuable players in the entire Southeastern Conference. The Rough Riders found these running backs to be the greatest players in the entire conference. They are the type of player that every football team in the country would like to have on its roster. The two players involved are Brown and Alexander, who were on the Texas team that defeated Rice last year. These two running backs were responsible for the majority of the offensive plays made by the Rough Riders.

The return of these players is a great boost to the Rice team. They will be able to utilize their skills and experience to help the team compete with the best teams in the conference.

The game against Texas will be a great test for the Rice team. The Rough Riders are one of the top teams in the conference and will provide a stiff challenge for Rice.

In addition to Brown and Alexander, several other players from the Texas team will also be returning to Rice. These players will be valuable additions to the team and will help to strengthen the lineup.

In conclusion, the return of these players is a huge boost for the Rice team. They will be able to utilize their skills and experience to help the team compete with the best teams in the conference. The game against Texas will be a great test for the team and will provide a stiff challenge for Rice.

HOGG, Back at Rice Next Fall

In September, 1918, when Rice opened, the Harvard team immediately showed how badly they were in the new season. The Harvard team was in a serious line reception. Such changes as the newest look at Harvard, not to mention that sameold, sameold hard and heavy look, is the only way to succeed in the football field.

The Texas team will be back at Rice next fall, and with them will come a new type of player, one who can run with the best of them. The Harvard team will have to be on their toes to prevent a score being made against them.

In conclusion, the return of these players is a huge boost for the Rice team. They will be able to utilize their skills and experience to help the team compete with the best teams in the conference. The game against Texas will be a great test for the team and will provide a stiff challenge for Rice.
