Mrs. Blake, Home Mother, Makes the Dinner Hour One of Warmth and Welcome. Both Boys and Girls Welcome at Noon and Evening Hours. Choice Cake. Make the Place Attractive in All.

The Elizabeth Baldwin and Pooja Kishore Loke, recently married, have returned from their honeymoon in Europe and Japan and are making their first appearance in the papers. Their reception was very formal and they were received with much applause and general agreement among those present at the Japanese Embassy. The Oriental atmosphere, the presence of a number of Japanese guests, and the fact that the reception was given in the presence of the Emperor, made it a mighty good party. The Emperor was present and, as is the custom, was served a special dish. The Emperor's wife, who is also a good restaurant critic, enjoyed the reception very much and expressed her admiration for the Emperor's hospitality. The Emperor was very kind and expressed his appreciation of the hospitality of the Japanese people. The Emperor's wife was not forthcoming. This can not be regarded as a snub but as an indication of the Emperor's courtesy. It will certainly be to the great credit of Rice if she can, in the face of the Emperor's wife's absence, make contribution of their hospitality.

The speed of the Owls was the outstanding feature which the game developed. Not only did the squad work fast but the Owls were successful in their endeavor to get a special train to go to Austin. It was a clever little play, possibly the best of the season.

A nite in the life of a rice girl was just a jolly night. It was a nine-day wonder and makes pies and sandwiches and soup—a host of Rice students.

The Student Council last Thursday held a meeting at which the constitution was adopted. The constitution is modelled after the constitution of the following officers were elected: President, Ethel E. Hall; Vice President, Ethel L. W. Humason.

The Dancer.

Williams and Whitman were partners, and it was the custom of their wife, who had married into the family, to spend their winters abroad, usually in Switzerland. One year they decided to spend the winter in Switzerland, and they invited their son, Oliver, to join them. Oliver was a young man of twenty, and he was eager to see the world and experience new things.

"What's the trouble?" asked Whitman, as they began their journey to Switzerland.

"Oh, I don't know," said Oliver. "I just feel very anxious about leaving my friends back home."

"Don't be anxious, son," said Whitman. "We'll be sure to write you letters and keep you updated on everything."

Oliver nodded, and they continued on their journey. When they arrived in Switzerland, they met up with some old friends and settled into their winter house, ready to enjoy all the delights of the Swiss Alps.

The Constitution.

The constitution governing the sport of the Horsemen follows:

The Horsemen shall be governed and controlled by a body of representatives known as the Union Council.

The duties of the Union Council shall be to govern matters pertaining to the horse and rider in any and all aspects of the sport as a whole. This body shall not only handle matters pertaining to the Union Council in its own name but also act as a representative of the Union Council to the various clubs and societies associated therewith.

The Union Council shall be a self-perpetuating body throughout the school year. The Union Council shall have the power to make any rules that may be necessary for the conduct of the sport, and it shall be created by a majority of the Council.

Method of Proceedings.

In any case involving the honor of the individual student, individually or as a whole, a signed report or accusation shall be submitted to the Council. The signed report shall be in writing, and in the judgment of the Union Council it is proper and in the best interest of the sport that it be forwarded to a copy of the report to the chairman, who will be elected by the Union Council, for a preliminary hearing. The Union Council shall act upon the report of accusation, whether or not the accused student is present, and shall render a judgment.

The formal reading of the report should be made at least two days before the time set for the preliminary hearing.

If the accused student has not been present, then the accused student shall be notified by the chairman, who shall inform him of the decision of the trial and the time of the final hearing.

The final hearing shall be held before the Union Council. At the final hearing the trial judge shall hear evidence or witnesses to prove the innocence of the accused student. The decision in the case shall be rendered by the Union Council.
