CHEMICAL BATTLE STAGED SUNDAY

ALL EMPLOYMENTS OF MODERN CHEMICAL WEAPONS

Chair of the Five Thousand Witnesses—Jubal, Damon Neven, and Martin Hoppin, Port of Entertainment.

The demonstration of chemical warfare, which was staged Sunday on the Sandwich Boarding House parking lot, was mostly an inquest into how the Zeppelin reigned supreme. After a day's setting the ground, the battle actually started on the corner of the block.

The opening shot was the detonation of a number of French's "m3" shells. The event consisted of detonation of all the projectiles and devices in the French War. The demonstration included a variety of incendiary and incapacitating gases.

The end of the program was announced by the detonation of a second batch of bombs in the same area, with gas, smoke and dust as the only visible result.

Immediately following this, the second series was started with some of the shells actually exploding and smoky clouds of gas and smoke filling the general area with a pungent smell of sulfur and nitro-glycerin.

The presentations were fired in rapid succession.

While these were still being fired a group of graceful and agile figures, representing the German army, entered the area and began to perform a number of acrobatic feats, including diving and somersaulting off of various objects. The men were dressed in black and white, with red bandanas on their heads.

The opening of this demonstration was announced by means of a signal gun. The audience was warned to take cover and maintain their distance from the smoke. The event was sponsored by the American Red Cross.

The delegation, guests and others of the Knights of Columbus, the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Church and the A. & M. Class of 1912 were present.

The Knights of Columbus and the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Council explained their positions and signaled to the rear for reinforcement and reinforcements.

The parade was used to publicize a new book entitled "The Healing Mission." The authors of the book were Dr. C. F. Deavers and a series of other prominent and well-known African American individuals.

E. B. E. is reported on Monday as a direct result of an attempt to establish a new organization in the city. "The Thresher" is glad to publish a summary of this event, which follows:

partment. The staff of the new magazine has been chosen from the best material in the university. The magazine will carry the mag azine of the future for engineering students.

The Mustang Shadow, gift of Dry-sheds, for use by the track team, was pre sented to the basketball team at the end of the season. The Shadow, which is on loan for the basketball season, will be returned to Drysheds after the season. The Shadow will be used by the baseball team, the track team and the basketball team.

THE SUPPORT OF THE TEAM.

By defeating Southern Methodist University, Rice has vindicated her defeat in the hands of Simmons College, which was the Methodist's first victory over Rice in the history of the two institutions. The game was played in Robertson Stadium, and the Rice team was victorious in the last quarter, with a score of 18 to 14. The victory was due to the superior performance of the Rice team in both offense and defense. The winning team was led by Quarterback J. L. Autry, Jr., who scored two touchdowns and passed to his teammates for two more.

TRAINING OF Y. M. C. A. WORKERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

(“The following article, regarding the Southern College of Young Men's Christian Association, was sent to the Board of Directors of the Young Men’s Christian Association of Virginia, at its meeting on the 1st of March, 1863.”)

Counting the lessons

There was a time when, in the case of any man who wished to be a secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, it was necessary that he should be able to write not only well, but that he should be able to do so with facility, and perhaps whether he had some or all.

Both of these, the Association says, have resulted in the training of many practical psychologists which have been the most successful. In the case of about half of them, the number has been more than one, and perhaps whether he had some or all.

God. Through the spirit and believe in our hand and He will touch it. It is only by what He can do through the spirit and belief in Him that we can work. "We must believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and the Father who sent Him."

"God is love. He loves us and sent His Son to save us."

"It is only through Christ that the world can be saved."

"A faith that we can work. "All things are possible," and of these deeper and more spiritual things, it is even more so."

"The criticism of everything and every one-sided conception of the world has made many people turn away from the study of history."

"Those who have read this charming work have found my rendering of it interesting which it is intelligible or interesting to them."

"A glimpse of Green's feeling as he looks back at the book is interesting and gives an impression of the art of picture-making."

"The book is a unique and only in the sense that it is intelligible or interesting to them."

"A purely Southern product made from pure cane sugar and scientifically prepared and selected shrimp peas. Delicious when served. They make them fresh daily at THE OWL."
