Seat Provisions for Big Contest

California - Stanford Game Will Be Seen From Packed Stands.

(Whitney Notes - Sports Service)

Berkeley, Oct. 28: Students may apply for one ticket to the annual football and make it home examinations to the alumni big game for the team and make it home examinations to November 12. Applicants for seats will be received by the graduate manager only on regular printed forms which will be obtained from an assistant manager, F. N. B. LaFevre.

The applications will be accepted in the following manner: First, students in the rosters' section, then alumni in the alumni section, then students in the alumni section.

California and Stanford have similar forms and the rules of distribution of tickets are the same in both institutions.

The seating capacity of the California Athletic buildings is 5,200 and a number of additional seats will be made available. Only 900 of the first eight seats each will be constructed around the side of the field for the use of alumni and press representatives.

All student applications for seats must be in the hands of the Graduate Manager by October 31. Alumni tickets will be made out of an alumni section of the seated area in the following manner:

- November 12: The first 800 tickets
- November 13: The next 800 tickets
- November 14: The remainder of the tickets

In applying for tickets everyone must be able to show an identification card showing the year in which he entered the University. Any applications for tickets in abnormal numbers interest is in need in concluding the large eastern games.

A GREAT DEAL of dissatisfaction exists among Rice readers regarding the way the football season was handled this year. Many of the men feel that the football team was handled more like a body and not scattered helter-skelter as it should have been. They feel that the boys, so as to give the best effect both in the team and in the future, should be in a body and not scattered.

Xmas is Coming

You guess, we guess, the other fellow guesses and Christmas becomes a great guessing contest—resulting in a sacred feast converted into a universal gamble.

There’s no need for this! Your ethical gift impulses may be preserved against the vulgar resort of gift-guessing.

We have found a way, through Gift Grammy, to serve you in your gift problem that makes it unnecessary and out-of-place to ask you to read Gift Suggestion advertisements or consult Gift Suggestion bureau, or as a last resort, to buy Gift Merchandise certificates.

These are devices to help the perplexed public under the “green-thift” method of the post.

We turn and invite you to turn with us from all guessing devices to the new Gift Grammy way, wherein there is NO PROBLEM, NO AIMLESS SHOPPING, NO DIS-AFFECTIONS, NO EMOTIONAL ABANDONMENTS, NO RETURNS, NO EXCHANGES.

Watch the daily papers for more details about this new service.
