Dr. T. T. Su Lectures To Students

The Washington Conference Was the Subject For

Last Thursday night Dr. Y. T. Tsu, Ph. D., formerly professor of sociol- ogy at the University of Chicago, lectured to the students of the Y. M. C. A. on the important work of the Washington Conference. He spoke of the importance of world peace and the need for understanding among nations. His talk was very informative and the students seemed to enjoy it. The meeting ended with a discussion led by the students.

EUGENE PILLOT IS TO ADDRESS THE WRITING CLUB

Eugene Pilott of Houston, a well-known writer of plays, will address the Writing Club Monday, 8:00 p.m. Dr. Stockton Axson, the chairman of the club, announced that Pilott will be coming to Rice for the next month and that he will be giving a number of talks on the art of writing. The club is excited about having him as a speaker and is looking forward to the talks.

SOPHOMORE KID DANCE IS A SUCCESS

One of the joilest and pleasantest dances of the year was given by the Sophomore class on the Thursday night of February 11. It was attended by 200 students and was the first dance of the class. The decorations were very pretty, and the music was provided by the university orchestra. The students had a great time.

WOLF CAGERS MEET THE A. M. & M. FIVE

As this week's basketball contest, the Owls have a good chance against the A. M. & M. Five. The Owls have been practicing hard and are expected to do well. The game will be played on the campus, and the students are all looking forward to it.

OPEN TENNIS TOURNAMENT FOR RICE MEN

Congratulations to the winners, who were the Rice men who competed for the title of champion. The tournament was a great success, and the students are looking forward to the next one.

MUSTANGS WIN OVER OWLS BY A NARROW MARGIN

Loving Cup To Be Awarded To Winner Of The Affair

A tennis tournament is to be held on the holiday of February 22 and open to all Rice men, excluding only letter men. The Rice men will be represented by Mr. Clark Hopkins, coach of the Owls, who is in charge of the program. The list of those eligible to take part in the tournament is to be made by the committee. There will be no fees or changes of any kind connected with the entry list. The tournament will be held in the South End Junior High School and is expected to last for the next month.

The second half was marked by the excellent playing of the Owls, which permitted only two or three points to be scored. At the same time the Owls, which are developing rapidly and are expected to be one of the best teams in the Pacific, were able to provide some effective opposition.

Matthews and Kitti Stars For S. M. U. Baker and "S." Matthews and Kitti Stars For S. M. U.

Baker was the high man in scoring with 21 points. He is a real guard position and managed to hold his own and at the same time lead a few players in the offensive. On the other hand, S. M. U. was dependent on the offensive and was unable to put any points on the board.

Football is April's main event in these parts of the country, but never is the scene so much activity during the first week of football season. Very early in the season, planning the plays for a spring football game is completed. This year the playing field was set up for the first time in the history of the school. The team was to be made up of the best players from each grade, and the game was expected to be a great success.
Rice is the production of a small number of graduates of the university. The problem of the relation of the undergraduate and the university is a complex one. Rice is the university and the university is Rice. The student body is a part of the university, and the university is a part of the student body. Rice is not a college, but a university. The problem of the relation of the undergraduate and the university is not a problem of the relation of a college to a university, but a problem of the relation of a student to a university. Rice is a university, and the university is Rice.
The average scholarship standing of the students has been maintained this year, as the average for the last semester was $3.25.

The Oxford University international assembly, composed of students from nineteen nations, has elected to admit membership thirty German students.

In the last two weeks, R. L. M. has shifted a large portion of his work to the University of Wyoming. The assembly is composed of students from nineteen nations, and has elected to admit membership thirty-German students.

A student committee has been appointed at the University of California to investigate the relative merits of various forms of student government. The committee of five members appointed by the faculty to investigate the relative merits of various forms of student government has stated that it will report the results of its investigation to the faculty by November 1.

The faculty of the University of Wyoming has recently organized a student council. They have limited their planning to actions that do not involve the university's financial responsibilities.

The meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCorquodale, a student at the University of Wyoming for last semester was 3.2105. The meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McCorquodale, a student at the University of Wyoming for last semester was 3.2105.

JUNIORS PREPARE FOR PROM

The Junior class is the soul of energetic activity with the season progressing. The Junior class, however, may be somewhat slower in getting started than are others, and this is due partly to the fact that there are a few of points of dispute.

Before Tuesday night, Feb. 21, the Junior class will be working out in the gymnasium getting ready for the Junior-Senior basketball game. The Junior class will have the home court and will be in the lead in the fall and be in fine shape for the season.

LIGHT WORK-OUTS FOR MEN

Light work-outs comprised the baseball training schedule for the past week. Coach Cunningham was optimistic in his report of the players who attended the work-outs. There was a good turn-out of players, and there is a high percentage of men whose experience with the game is the only reason for the team to be selected.
