BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR GREEN OWL FOOTBALL TEAM

A group of experienced "backers" numbering as many as there are in the "varsity squad," reported this week for practice. A.C. Coles, J. H. Wightman, H. E. Taylor, and others have been graduated, and the new team is in fair condition.

The first secret practice, and initial defensive drill, was held Monday morning. The players are in good shape and have been putting in a lot of work. The team is expected to make a good showing this year.

Clothes for College Men
No group of men are so exacting in their requirements as the collegiate throng. They are careful in their outward demeanor.
Our young men’s clothes are tailored just for them—giving the exact fit.
In cut, in tailoring, in fabric, they possess those fine points of quality which combine the necessary wear and comfort with the air of distinction.
Excellent values in young men’s suits—

BLANKET TAXES UNPAID BY MANY

Only 500 blanket taxes have been paid. This statement, issued by A. B. Kennedy, treasurer of the Students’ Association, shows an alarming laxity in the payment of this essential fee, he declares. “Apparently many students have overlooked the fact that payment of this tax is necessary to gain admittance to the Student Union. It is virtually a test of the student himself, because if the student is not admitted to the Student Union his education will be hampered.”

Deals will be placed in the classrooms on Wednesday and Friday mornings. During the week, to accommodate the faculty once.

ALL RECORDS SHATTERED IN REGISTRATION

Five men placing records in the final registration will be found at the desks in the cloisters, but were collected within the registration hours, immediately after the actual registration was completed.

MAIL DELIVERY
Changes have taken place in the schedule for incoming and outgoing mail which will affect dormitory literary efforts to some extent. There will be no out-going morning mail service, the first out-going delivery of mail being at 1 o’clock. Following the revised schedule:

5 a.m.—Incoming delivery.
1 p.m.—Outgoing delivery.
1 p.m.—Incoming delivery.
2 p.m.—Outgoing delivery.

The mail truck is now kept in town, instead of at the hospital, and is operated on that basis.

Under the new system, of course, letters written at night will not be delivered until the following day, whereas those written in the afternoon will be culled almost immediately.

Church Directory
The Thresher is printing two lists of many Houston churches and addresses, for the benefit particularly of new students. Here day school classes will be found at nearly all of these institutions:

Central Presbyterian, Harris and Pease.
Christ Episcopal, Texas and Fannin.
Orthodox Jewish, Jackson and Walker.
First Baptist, City Auditorium.
First Methodist, Main and Houston.
First Presbyterian, Main and Houston.
First United Methodist, 3rd and Walker.
First United Presbyterian, Main and Houston.
Second Presbyterian, Main and Travis.
South End Christian, 1000 Main.
South Main Baptist, West Jackson and Glory.
Reformed Jewish, Lamar and Crawford.
Trinity Episcopal, Main and Houston.
Apostle Church (Episcopal) Osborn and Rice Institute.
