Wine, Women and Song—and "Men"—Appear at Dance

Wine, Women and Song—

There were also Men of the Quartet,

And each had a date with one of them.

Dancing began about 10:30 P.M.

Everyone believed as considered proper, except the barefoot boy, who had to stand on the sidelines.

Wednesday night under the auspices of The Blayney Talks To Ford was chosen Thresher reporter. Miss Alice Micheaux was elected rice of the Social Committee of the A-Club, following Dr. Lindsey Blayney addressed the senior class Wednesday night under the auspices of the A-Club. His subject was "The Student as A Future Citizen." His address was unusual in the fact that it emphasized the responsibility of students in later life. He is the first student to address the class that way, and he emphasized the obligation of college men and women to the world because of the achievement of the great lives of history.

RICE CONDEMNED A TRAVESTY ON ART

The Rice Institute was definitely faulted recently for placing an ancient statue of Constantine at the University Club. The statue is a travesty erected at the very threshold of the university, to quote an official of the Society.

"The Rice Institute is here to stay, and the Rice students are paying enough (pro- vincial and international) to get the best eques-

FOOD: "NEVER TOUCHED BY HUMAN FEET"

(Editors' Note: This is a part of a series of articles appearing in The Thresher.

Group endeavors in the campus of college are a common sight; however, the efforts of the kitchen staff are not as obvious. Yet, the kitchen staff is responsible for the nutritional needs of the students.

Safety and Health

To ensure the safety of the students who eat in the messhall, the kitchen staff must follow specific guidelines. Whatever is sold in the messhall is safe and healthy. The kitchen staff is responsible for preparing food according to accredited systems.

Amenities and Comfort

The comfort of the students who eat in the messhall is of utmost importance. Whether it be the system of seating or the cleanliness of the tables, the staff must ensure that the students feel comfortable while eating.

The Messhall's Function

The messhall serves as a place where students can come to eat, meet, and socialize. The staff must therefore maintain the messhall in a functional and inviting state.

Summation

In summary, the kitchen staff plays a crucial role in the food service system of the college. By following guidelines and ensuring safety, health, and comfort, they contribute to an environment where students can thrive.

(Use the food was reasonably good

If abstinence from "griping" would say first of all that food and methods continued harping back on disagreeable food, whether justified or not, and brought with the majority of our wishes something.

If the question was asked, "Why can not be the popular theme for editorials

The Criterion

Now Barbara is just the type of girl
That you've often thought you would like to be
You've seen her at football games and "protests"
On college campus, at after tea,
As she passes you by, you quietly sense her charm,
In a crowd she is singled out from all the rest,
Her secret is simple—she's studied herself
In accord with fashion—she knows how to dress.

Whether it be Barbara, Mary, Jane, or Grace,
Our TVLTHAVI council advice always can be relied upon to help one scorn the desired effect in Drees.

BOB RICCI, Manager

The question of the election by the Council of the class officers of the freshmen class was brought up by the president, but due to the fact that no one would nominate any freshman, Moore moved that the election be postponed until the regular session. Motion carried unanimously.

Due to the probation ruling, the order of business of the Student Council was changed. President Jean Sproule, acting president; J. McKean read financial report, in which it was stated that there was some discrepancy in the bookkeeping of the Student Council; that the bookkeeper, Joe Robley, had written Joe Robley about it, and that he would notify the president of the Student Council.Motion carried unanimously.

More again discussed the question of the Student Council's coming to the regular meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Wood presented petition of C. A. Brown asking Council to give him the privilege to publish a newsletter. After some discussion, vote was taken and it was agreed to give him the privilege to publish the newsletter this year, as it would only be a trial to find out whether or not the matter by the school public.

Penick made motion that the first Thursday of each month the council meet at 7:30 p.m. for the purpose of the council to meet, the motion being seconded by Penick and carried unanimously.

More sugar was requested for the Student Council's coming to the regular meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

The president of the Student Council was designated by president to have a committee for the coming month to be responsible for the regular meeting, statement showing condition of treasury and expenditures, and authorization of "incidental" fund for the coming year.

Adjourned at noon of President.
