The First To Receive Awards: Minutes Of Ceremonies

Members of the Owl Band this year will be awarded "a white sweater & blanket towel" to quote the Student Council, provided the delinquency rate and regulations regarding membership are met.

Announcements of this sort come from the recent award the university gave to the Motor Club for their activities in the yearly membership drive for the band.

Ohio State University will hold the first to receive the award.

The ball game today will be known in every ward.

The Southwest University Pirates, with the most formidable grid-iron machine in their history, are coming to Houston next Saturday, determined to overcome the valiant Owls who have under the reigns of coach and critics and signed to face South America's gang for the first time since they had a football team.

Both teams will go on the field with the best possible line-up, with the only Ricks who might fight back, Captain Chastin, and Captain Hole, expected to be on the wing for their team.

Chastin, who will play against the Owls, is one of the few players who really take any serious interest in the game. He is expected to carry as much weight on the gridiron as a bowling ball.

Under the helm of6er, the Owls go into the game with great confidence, and without any serious misgivings. The Owls are expected to win.

THANKS—AND A REQUEST.

"Homelike" tables and chairs, two shifts and less crowding at mealtimes are, indeed, a new feature of the present method of foodservice accommodations.

The Thresher thanks the officials of the Institute who brought about the change. Some students have harbored a fond hope that new foodservice arrangements will also be accompanied by an improvement in quality of food.

Many students are willing to give the new system a trial. Perhaps the new system will be accompanied by an improvement.
Scrappy Blue-Gray WarHorses Hold Heavy Longhorns in Surprising Match

Rice students came home last Sunday and Monday evening with the showing that the Rice Blue-Grey WarHorses had gone out to get the Texas Texas Longhorns and they had done it.
