Rice Topic

MONDAY and Tuesday nights the Rice Dramatic Club will stage winter production of a group of fellow students altogether this year.

The Fraternity has elected their officers for the coming year, and now, under the auspices of the Students' Council, is planning to produce a play for Christmas. This will be the year's most important event, and the students are working hard to make it a success.

A meeting of the Dramatic Club was held recently, at which the plans for the coming season were discussed. It was decided to have a series of one-act plays, and to produce a full-length play in the spring. The plays will be chosen by the Drama Committee, and the production will be under the direction of Mr. B. S. Smith.

The club has also been granted permission to use the new theater for its performances, and the students are looking forward to a very successful season.

How many dorm men will walk RPI production of the Bing Thing?

Many dorm men will walk over RPI for the Bing Thing, the annual spring production of the Bing Thing. This year, the Bing Thing will be held on Friday night, April 5th, at the Rice University Auditorium.

The Bing Thing is a tradition at Rice University, and it is always a popular event among the students. The Bing Thing is known for its lively music, dance, and comedy, and it is a great way to celebrate the end of the semester.

EMILE RIPERT TO LECTURE HERE MARCH 5, 6 AND 7

Professor Emile Ripert, well-known French scholar and writer, will give three lectures at Rice University on March 5, 6, and 7. The lectures will be held in the Rice Auditorium at 8 p.m. each evening.

Professor Ripert is a leading authority on French literature and culture, and his lectures will cover a wide range of topics, from the works of Flaubert to contemporary French cinema.

ORLS ON ROAD FOR LAST TWO FRIDAYS

Coach Arakawa led his backfield of the Owls past the Bobcats over Thursday night and hit the road for the last two weekends of the season. The Owls are currently ranked 13th in the nation, and the final two games of the season will be against the Tigers and the Aggies.

CAST CHOSEN IN TORCHBEARERS” Y. W. PRODUCTION

The Torchbearers, the annual Y.W.C.A. production, will be presented by the Torchbearers Committee on April 12th. The cast has been chosen, and rehearsals will begin next week.

YELLOW PERIL” DISCUSSED BY ABE GOODMAN

Abe Goodman, well-known local writer and journalist, will discuss the Yellow Peril at the next meeting of the Rice Club, on Tuesday, March 12th. The meeting will be held in the Rice Auditorium at 8 p.m.

The Yellow Peril is a term that has been used for many years to describe the growing influence of China in the world. Mr. Goodman will discuss the history of the term and its implications for the future.

OCCUPIED WITH MIXED WITH GOOD EFFECTS: THE AUTO WIL</noscript>
ATHLETES KNOW WHAT THIS MEANS. HEISMAN IS ASKING THAT EVERY MAN SHOW WHAT HE IS MADE OF. THIS MEANS A LOT TO THE MAN WHO HAS NEVER PLAYS FOOTBALL BEFORE. A MAN CAN COME OUT IF HE HAS NEVER TOUCHED A FOOTBALL BEFORE. BUT IT IS NOT ENOUGH IF HE JUST COMES AND STANDS THERE. HE MUST HAVE SOMETHING TO SHOW. HE MUST BE READY TO DO HIS SHARE OF THE WORK.

THE NEW COACH WILL NOT TAKE ANY TIME TO WALK AROUND. THE TRAINING WILL START IMMEDIATELY. THE MAN WHO DOES NOT SHOW WHAT HE IS MADE OF WILL NOT BE TAKEN SERIOUSLY. THE NEW COACH WILL BE STRONG AND DECISIVE. HE WILL NOT BE ABLE TO BECOME A "RIP-TOUGH" MAN.

RICE, WHERE HE GRADUATED IN 1919. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED IN HIS ARMY DUTIES BY A GROUP OF STAR HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES. THE "MODEL" WAS USED FOR A BURLESQUE STYLE SHOW. AS HE SAID, "THEY WERE APPROVED FOR USE." THE "MODERATE" HAD AN ORIGINAL SUBJECT OF "DRESS FOR THE COLLEGE

DINNER." HE CHARGED THE GIRLS NOT TO SMOKE, DRINK, OR DO ANYTHING THAT WOULD BE CONSPICUOUS. SHE TOLD OF HER TRAVELS AND HER SHOPS "IN VARIOUS PLACES." SHE TOLD OF HER "LOMBARDI, LENNIE, AND LUDDEY KENNERLY." SHE TOLD OF HER "LETTIE STUART," WHO BECAME THE "NEW LOMBARDI." SHE SAID OF HER "GREAT GARDEN," WHICH WAS "ONE OF THE FINEST." SHE ENDED HER TALK WITH "THANK YOU FOR COMING."
Owl Quintet Divides Last Home Bill With Arkansas Razorbacks

In the Thriller

The Rice Owls fell in defeat before the Arkansas Razorbacks in the final game after winning the previous meeting at Rice. The score was 21-6. Routinely, the spirited Owls tried to keep the Red Devil's coiled as tight as a spring, but the Arkansas squad never let up.

At the half-time, the Owls had 4 points to trail by 16. This was the largest lead Arkansas had taken in the first half. In the second half, the Owls attempted to tie the game, but the Razorbacks held on to win by a 5-point margin.

Rain Keeps Owl Tennis Lassies Indoors Monday

The Girl's Tennis Club held its annual meeting in the Girl's Lounge at Arosy House Monday.

The meeting was well attended, with discussions of future matches and plans for the upcoming season.

SENIORS ON TOP AS SEASON ENDS; SLIMES DO WELL

With the triumphant return of the Owls over the Bulldogs into the ranks, the Slimes started off with a bang. The Owls defeated the Bulldogs in a fast game at the Field House in an exciting contest.

The Owls were left without a regular coach when Clarke Hopkins left the team at the beginning of the season. This left the Owls in the last half, but they continued their winning streak.

The Owls will be back next season, and many others are looking forward to watching their progress.

Duggan Speaks At Chapel In Weekly Service

About twenty-five members were at Chapel services Wednesday morning. Among the visitors was Mr. Masterson. Those in charge urged the members to be in attendance at the service, and to repeat that other members would be in the future.

A discussion of "The Social Principle of Jesus" was given by Mr. R. N. Duggan. The subject was handled in an interesting manner. Several pictures were used to illustrate the principles of class, straight forward living as set down by Jesus.

The service was held every Wednesday morning, from eight to eight-thirty, in the A. & R. Chambers. All students are cordially invited to attend.

RASCHEL-HEAVERS

Acro-Dance Start Work As Brodie's Saddle Broke

With spring (1917) coming on the Owls are making preparation for getting into the saddle again for the old war days and expecting to be among the leaders again this year. The Owls have already been scheduled with Baylor, R. M. U. and Texas A. & M., to be played at Rice.

The Owls will battle with Texas T. U. and Tulane in representative schools.

The Owls were left without the regular coach when Clarke Hopkins left the team at the beginning of the season. From Fish, one of Rice's best bets on the court this year, is reaching the Owls at present.

The return of Hopkins was delayed because the coaching situation will be cleared up. The former coach is well-known in international tennis circles, and will be a valuable addition to the team for the Owls.

Rain Keeps Owl Tennis Lassies Indoors Monday

The Girl's Tennis Club held its annual meeting in the Girl's Lounge at Arosy House Monday.

The meeting was well attended, with discussions of future matches and plans for the upcoming season.

SENIORS ON TOP AS SEASON ENDS; SLIMES DO WELL

With the triumphant return of the Owls over the Bulldogs into the ranks, the Slimes started off with a bang. The Owls defeated the Bulldogs in a fast game at the Field House in an exciting contest.

The Owls were left without a regular coach when Clarke Hopkins left the team at the beginning of the season. This left the Owls in the last half, but they continued their winning streak.

The Owls will be back next season, and many others are looking forward to watching their progress.

Duggan Speaks At Chapel In Weekly Service

About twenty-five members were at Chapel services Wednesday morning. Among the visitors was Mr. Masterson. Those in charge urged the members to be in attendance at the service, and to repeat that other members would be in the future.

A discussion of "The Social Principle of Jesus" was given by Mr. R. N. Duggan. The subject was handled in an interesting manner. Several pictures were used to illustrate the principles of class, straight forward living as set down by Jesus.

The service was held every Wednesday morning, from eight to eight-thirty, in the A. & R. Chambers. All students are cordially invited to attend.

Duggan Speaks At Chapel In Weekly Service

About twenty-five members were at Chapel services Wednesday morning. Among the visitors was Mr. Masterson. Those in charge urged the members to be in attendance at the service, and to repeat that other members would be in the future.

A discussion of "The Social Principle of Jesus" was given by Mr. R. N. Duggan. The subject was handled in an interesting manner. Several pictures were used to illustrate the principles of class, straight forward living as set down by Jesus.

The service was held every Wednesday morning, from eight to eight-thirty, in the A. & R. Chambers. All students are cordially invited to attend.
P. A. L. S. Hostes At Musical Ball In Antry House

Open House Sunday afternoon was held at Antry House on campus. Miss Alice Ross was hostess. Miss Alice tom Swift was charge.

A very delightful program was furnished by the Masonic Council, and Miss Martha Scott gave an entertainment talk on the History of the Opera. Miss Scott has been lecturing in the evening for several days, to create an interest in the Opera which were created at the Auditorium.

Dr. Ralston Andrews Twose will speak on "The Book of Job" in March, 1933.

Student Proposes—

(Continued From Page 1.)

5. The funds for the erection of the memorial should be placed in hands of a trustee, who shall be chosen by the student body.
6. The details shall be placed in the hands of a committee of ten students, one from each of the classes. Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior, under a chairman elected from the members of the group.
7. The present student body, as organizers of the movement, should decide the form of the memorial.
8. The entire plan should be submitted to the hands of the student body; under the direction of the movement, if adopted, should be approved, with the members of the student body in attendance at the dedication.
9. The name of the student body and of every other person who shall have any connection with the memorial should be placed in a permanent record.

The plan outlined here is rigorous and inadequate for the goals which the act proposes. It is intended solely as a suggestion, and if the students are interested, it is expected that they will work out any further details.

Edil Mixed—

(Continued From Page 1.)

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.

The question of the automobile in relation to civilization actually a vital problem. Extremes form his very intricate branch.