FROM THE PRESS BOX

Southwestern, playing Rice here Saturday afternoon, has suffered a couple of severe set backs that in the season, but it does not seem too much to much. The Owls have a week off when the two teams play. The Press box are enough to inspire a hard plowed team by June, however.

An Invitation
By Dorothy Perkins

I WOULD like to have every Girl at Rice come in and see me while I am at Harris-Hall's.

I am a line of Toilettery Preparations for the younger set which I call "The College Line." I have an extensive sale of all the leading Colleges and Universities of the country.

I have representatives respectfully representing me in college towns—but I am here in person for a short time at the Harris-Hall Store, which has the exclusive sale of my preparations in Houston.

Come in and be explored the special merits of these toilettries for the College Girl.

I will be here the balance of this week and the fore part of next, and will be glad to see you whether you decide to use my preparations or not.

DOROTHY PERKINS.
