To err is human; to forgive, divine.

"The Bat," mystery thriller centering on the exploits of an eccentric priest, will be shown at the Palace Theatre next Monday (if we win, of course).  "The Bat" is the successful sequel to "The Hound of the Baskervilles," and will be shown in Gay Light Colors for five cents.  William Randolph Hearst, New York newspaper owner, Universal Pictures, and the studio of Charles Major, is a producer of "The Bat".  The film, directed by S. N. Behrman, is scheduled to be released this fall.  The playing of the lead role, that of the priest, is done by Robert Young; this role was played by Herbert Mundin in the original novel.

"The Hound of the Baskervilles" has been a great success in England, and is eagerly awaited by American audiences.  "The Bat," on the other hand, has been receiving mixed reviews.  The film has been criticized for its lack of suspense and its reliance on plot devices rather than character development.  However, the audience seems to be enjoying the film, and it is expected to do well at the box office.  "The Hound of the Baskervilles" has been slated for a release in the fall, and it is expected to be a bigger hit than "The Bat".

CRAWL BAPTISTS
San Marcos Will Be Bested Here

Fresh from a week-end of victories, the Terrill Pops will emerge from their week-end tour of duty. San Marcos will be tackled on the field and arrive at the stadium this afternoon.

Archbishop norris has given his men a week of intense work, perfecting the drill noticed in the game last week, and working on new plays. It is expected that they will look the best of the last week in the win.

It is held that the fault of fall in the game last week was not the players but the coaching. Against Terril several costly penalties, one of which was really in a touchdown. This was due, it seems, to the drill that the team had not played previously in an audience, and to the result of confusion in the first few minutes of play. Now, since the players have the lamps of fire, the players will win every game.

San Marcos comes to Rice with two losses in the season in which we have come from more and more drive, harder and headily than on offense. Let's all be after and win out. Have not those Freshmen had acquitted them-selves so well against the strong.
