Rice Topics

TUESDAY night the Rice Dramatic Club will present the play, "Shakespeare," at the auditorium of the Rice Institute. It is to be the most elaborately staged of the plays to be given during the season by the Rice actors, and included in the cast is one of the best known of the club's actors, Mr. Charles H. A. Johnson, who will fill the role of Bill Shakespeare. The other members of the cast are

- Herbert Hoover, who has been designated to play the role of the poet. Hoover was formerly a member of the club and has had a part in many of its productions. He is an assistant in economics and has spent the summer in Europe.
- Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who will play the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Shakespeare. Mrs. Johnson is a member of the cast and has had a part in many of the club's productions. She is an assistant in economics and has spent the summer in Europe.
- Mr. and Mrs. Snell, who will play the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Shakespeare. Mr. Snell is a member of the cast and has had a part in many of the club's productions. He is an assistant in economics and has spent the summer in Europe.

"The Store That Grows"

Capitol at Travis

Saturday 8400

C. A. Johnson utilized one of the words about the campus for adver-
ts purposes.

"It is a wonderful place to learn,
and I believe that my future career will be greatly

Inspired by the success and prosperity of the College,

I have decided to accept the position of managing editor of the Co-Ed
Thresher, which appeared in February.

The book will contain striking views and illustrations, and I am halfway through working on the manuscript.

The book is titled 'That Grows'
and is headed by Clyde Bullen,
assisted by several students.

The book will be something over $10,000. About $5,000 will be set aside for advertising, and the rest will go to support the new Co-Ed Thresher.

The book will be published by the University of Texas Press, and will be available in bookstores everywhere.

I am excited to work on this project, and I believe it will be a great success.

Thank you for considering this request. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

C. A. Johnson"
NICHOLSON GOES

Chicliss J. Nicholson was named Thresher reporter when he intended to track squad last Tuesday afternoon.

He is a freshman who had a talk in the track squad last Tuesday afternoon. It was his first chance at a newspaper reporter job and he made a good report of the story.

He is a member of the Woman's Council of New Orleans and has previously appeared as a member of the council.

The faculty is entirely right in holding the standards high, he said, that it is our own fault if we fail.

The Pallas Athene Literary Society will have its next meeting for Tuesday, May 19, at which Miss Jeanette Lingle will be the speaker.

The society was established to be a literary and social society for the benefit of students.

The meeting will be held at the College Inn, at which the society will have its annual general meeting.

The program committee selected to be in charge will be Miss Austin Harvard, chairman, and Margaret Goodwin and Margaret Flack.

Announcement was made of an open meeting for Tuesday, May 19 at which Miss Jeanette Lingle, sculptor and miniature painter, will speak on these forms of art, explaining the symbolism of the Greek figures.

It is a three-fold standard which is impossible, but it is one that can be met with a little effort.
