A CALL has been issued by Coach Rlothgeb for all athletes who wish to improve their performance and receive additional training during the spring season. The offer is open to all current students, and those who have previously trained under Coach Rlothgeb are encouraged to rejoin the team.

Coach Rlothgeb's invitation should be taken seriously, as it is an opportunity to improve one's skills and contribute to the team's success. No guarantee of success is given, but the dedication and hard work of those who join will be recognized and rewarded.

Please contact Coach Rlothgeb directly for more information and to express your interest in joining the team.

REWARDING MURDERERS

The Thresher notes with pleasure that the police and the general public are of the opinion of the EBN reward offered by the Texas State Board of Parole for the conviction and execution of a miserable devil desperate enough to kill the wretches and we'll hand you the hard and delay of a just and fair trial in the courts cash over their dirty corpses.

Think of the swell car that would buy! We "a cent for live ones" is the proposition conceived and big business men has replaced the hooded under the portly dignity of a bank president in and energetic chief executive.

America Discovered for $7200

Old records show that the cost of Columbus’ first expedition to America amounted, in modern exchange, to only $7200. To finance Columbus, Isabella, Queen of Spain, offered to pawn her jewels. Today word comes from Spain indicating that a twentieth century importation from the new world is fast effect-

Aside from the game's inherent success, other factors contributed to its popularity. Pete, with his skillful dribbling and cool composure, represented the team well. His ability to control the ball and move it to other players was crucial. The Owls, led by Pete, were able to adjust their speed and condition, which allowed them to outplay their opponents. With this victory, Pete and the Owls were able to continue their winning streak.

The Owls' victory was not just a result of their hard work and dedication. It also reflected the support and encouragement they received from their fans. The Owls opened their season with a strong performance, and their fans were there to cheer them on. The Owls' victory was a testament to their tenacity and resilience.

The Owls' success was a source of pride for the school. It demonstrated the value of their athletic programs and the importance of teamwork. The Owls were able to achieve this success through their commitment to the game and their dedication to each other. This victory was not just a win for the Owls; it was a win for the school and its community.

In conclusion, the Owls' victory against the Saints was a significant moment in the school's history. It was a testament to the value of hard work, dedication, and teamwork. The Owls' victory was a source of pride for the school and its community, and it demonstrated the importance of athletic programs in fostering a sense of unity and shared purpose.

Aunt Eppie

Dear Aunt Eppie,

My name is Pauline, and I have been a student at Rice College for two years. My family and friends have always admired me for my good looks and beauty. I have always been a favorite with the boys, and I have never had any trouble getting dates. However, I have recently discovered that I am gay, and I am very unhappy about it. I have tried everything to change my sexual orientation, but nothing has worked. I have even tried therapy, but that did not help. I have decided to adopt a new identity and become a man. I am very excited about this new chapter in my life, and I am looking forward to the future. I hope you can understand my situation and support me in this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Pauline Armstrong

P.S. I have enclosed a copy of my birth certificate.
