Three Candidates Make Bid For Editor's Job

A special election to choose an new editor of the Campanile, to succeed Basil B. Tucker, who did not seek to retain his seat this year, will be held tomorrow. October 14, at the regular meeting of the Student Council Monday. The election will be held by secret ballot in the Sallyport. The three candidates are Bruce Westerfield, Junior; "Spud" Braden, Breaks into the News, and Griffith Lawhon, the editor. The candidates have made a statement which will follow:

"The Engineer's Annual Dance has been especially well advertised. Monday evening, November 13, in the Nave of Rice College, the Engineer's Annual Dance will begin promptly at 8 p.m. The students will begin arriving at 7:30. All Rice students are invited to attend the dance and to bring their dates. Refreshments will be served to sixty persons from 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. The Gala Dance Committee have ordered all the decorations and have arranged for a fine program of music. The orchestra will consist of the best members of the student body. The band will play the latest songs and the dance will conclude with a grand finale. All rice students are urged to attend this dance and make it a success."

WHAT A SHAME!

The evils of birth control! One of the most important issues of the day is birth control. It is not only a question of personal hygiene, but it is a question of the future of the country. If we do not control our population, we shall be faced with the problem of unemployment and poverty. It is time that we all took this question seriously and did something about it.

SENIORS PICK BLAZER WITH 2 INCH STRIPE

The senior class selected a blazer with a 2 inch stripe for the 1928 season. The blazer will be worn by the seniors in the football game tomorrow. The seniors are very pleased with the selection and believe that it will add to the prestige of the team.

Pick up one of the initial issues of most college publications and you will see an editorial as some have been called as "Patronize our Advertisers!" You know the familiar refrain, "Patronize those who patronize us" embodied in nine out of ten such editorials.

Houston business firms are not advertising in the Thresher and we are not going to urge our students to patronize those who patronize us. A few of our advertisers who have advertised in past issues of the Thresher will find that they are not going to be as complete at a downtown hall as at the Autry House. Despite the fact that the receipts from the dance fell off, the Autry House had an unusual program consisting of the news and nothing more, can be given.

The Thresher does not accept advertising given in a spirit of philanthropy. Reaching 1300 students weekly who are daily pursuing a wide variety of commodities, this publication is a valuable advertising medium. Whereas every student does not find what he is seeking from the goods advertised in the Thresher are things particularly appealing to the college market. If this is not done—the castor oil of Rice social life, the Autry House has plenty of cause for complaint. How- ever, it was conclusively proven Saturday night that it can never move a ladder half the blaze roots entirely upon the dance committee. Different events in the future will tend to increase instead of decrease with the use of the ladder.

The donor committee admits that Rice has outgrown the Autry and the Autry House. The donor committee feels that it is in order to move the dances to a larger hall because of the popularity of the dates. However, it is nothing short of ridiculous to move the dances to a larger hall because of the popularity of the dates. Dances given in the name of Rice must not be allowed to run uncontrolled, and for reasons of Rice the donor committee feels that its authority will not be as complete at a downtown hall as at the Autry House. No new rules are to be made but only a larger hall.

Don't patronize those who don't patronize us.

THE PROBLEM STILL WITH US

In an attempt to reduce the size of the huge crowd that usually attends the Saturday night dances the Rice Hornet dance committee last Saturday night inaugurated a bid system at the Autry House. This was part of a bid system. One dresses below the usual amount and that many were denied admittance to the dance. The sum was provided for beyond its capacity and the donors were subjected to much discomfort because of this. It should be made clear that all the Autry House is a complete and miserable failure as a hall in which the Saturday night dances must be held. Rice students feel that they had rather retire early after a show than to put up with the push and jam that prevails at the dances. It is felt that no arrangement whatsoever their Saturday night dances are being spoiled.

An announcement has been made that Nancy Holien and Virginia Rocke, who were former Rice students, will remain over the week-end are; Lynn Foster, Fay Etta and Mary McVeigh, all Rice students, and meets the club met at the home of Bernice Alene Vandaveer at her home last Thursday afternoon at Autry House.

The Rice Y. W. C. A. cabinet was entertained last Friday at a luncheon given by Miss Mary Powars, entertained her guests at her house.

The Rice Y. W. C. A. Sextette will give a program pleasingly unique.

The Rice Y. W. C. A. members were members of the class, both "old" and "new." The officers were changed to represent a theatre stage. Form, music, and the march will be given a starring stage setting for the program. The program includes serious music, a cast of the class, the brass "off," and air their views at the Rice Y. W. C. A.

The run-off was a mere formality, taking the short end of a 4-0, 6-4, 6-3 victory. Billy was wonderfully weak at the net, and without any kind of a surprise, his return was greeted with applause by the steady Rice player.

Several queries and a few interesting matches marked the opening of the fall Y. M. C. A. tournament on the Rice campus. The Y. M. C. A. is in a good lead, with a plentiful of the crowd, while Fike, Cross and Cross were a disappointment to the many who expected more from the stable Rice team.
