A number of Rice students are returning to their native homes for the holidays but many others have decided to remain on campus. Aside from the usual activities of the college, a number of special events were scheduled for the last week of the semester.

The annual Dance was held on Saturday night in the Rice Gym. The dancing was followed by an intimate dinner in the college dining hall. The Yell Leader and the Temple Men provided the entertainment for the evening.

The Rice Orchestra gave a concert in the Rice Auditorium on Sunday afternoon. The program featured works by Beethoven, Mozart, and Schumann.

The Rice Student Council sponsored a series of dances during the last week of the semester. These dances were held in the Rice Gym and were attended by students from all over the area.

The Rice Student Council also sponsored a series of lectures during the last week of the semester. These lectures were held in the Rice Auditorium and were attended by students from all over the area.
