FOOTBALL NEXT ON INTRACARDIAN TRAINING Is Scheduled to Begin Soon After Christmas.

AFTER much wavering and deliberation, the question has been definitely decided that intercollegiate football will be held this year. Equipment will be turn in on Monday, December 22, after the final examination terminal exams. The intracardian football will be played within the next two weeks, the games will be played.

The first game held last winter, will comprise the University of Southern California, and the University of Texas. Neither side expects to play the game in the presence of a crowd. They will be played to show that the games can be played in the presence of a crowd.

The second game, which will be a part of the training of a two weeks, will be held between the University of Southern California and the University of Texas.

The schedule is being arranged, and the teams are expected to be announced shortly.

WHY NOT LEAD, RATHER THAN FOLLOW FASHION?

One trend among women is that everybody wants to see the way in which clothes are being cut. And at first sight, you would think that there was much to be desired. If so, the rest of them will follow the trend, and we are likely to see more of the same. We are likely to see more of the same. What's new? Just look at the endless entries in the fashion columns, and you will see that the trend is just the same as ever. But this is not so.
