SEVENTY BAND MEN NOW IN REHEARSAL

Seventy band men are now engaged in rehearsals for the forthcoming football season. The band is being trained for the annual football game against the University of Texas, scheduled for Saturday, October 1st. The band members are working hard to perfect their playing skills and to develop a new and exciting program for the game.
A SERIOUS ACCUSATION

Stooping holes from a neighbor's range or corral was an old custom among some western cattle rustlers, dealing with the neighborhood kennel's house at one time or another stirred up strife on Main Street; but this year football players from a neighboring university's classrooms is a new and interesting brand of robbery. Having nothing from the pages of custom to regulate it, and having no present legitimate excuse, it might, if not accompanied with professional dexterity and address, lose completely the confidence of the heads of those who attempt it.

Some such difficulties appears to have come to visit one of the members of the Student Union Conference. During the past week they have carried accounts of an alleged attempt on the part of district officials to convert a star freshman athlete away from the college of his choice at Froth West. One of the district's students, finding that men word failed, carried the freshman off to Missouri, where an athletic director was prepared to help the good cause along.

Such an accusation is a serious one to make against any university, within the walls of which is perfection is supposed to be of a high order, and where football is supposed to played merely for the sake of sport and not for money. It is doubly serious when aimed at an institution that has done so much for clean athletics.

Mr. R. L. Handley, business manager of the Student Union at Southern Methodist University, in a statement in the papers, has denied any knowledge of the alleged attempt to carry off a star freshman athlete away from its college of his choice at Froth West. One of the district's students, finding that men word failed, carried the freshman off to Missouri, where an athletic director was prepared to help the good cause along.

THE BAND IN NEED

Rice Institute has a band which compares favorably with any college band in America today. In actual competition with other college organizations, it has never lost a game. It is a band of which the student body has been justly proud, as it has brought the university through many perils of military duty. From a part of a group which has been equally successful in competition with the band of a neighboring university, it has shown itself unequal to the task, unless accompanied with professional dexterity and address, lose completely the confidence of the heads of those who attempt it.

Wishing Colonel, speaking for the Rice Lunchmen, said in the recent meeting, 'You may well be aware that the number of freshmen this year is larger than the group that has been fed here in previous years. This indicates that the number of students returning to the college is on the increase, and indicates that the standard of the institution is improving.\n
The colonel went on to say that the lunchmen are eager to serve the students with the same care and attention that they have given in the past. They are determined to keep up the high standards that have been set by the past lunchmen.\n
The students are urged to give the lunchmen their full support and cooperation in order to maintain the good name of the Rice Lunchman.\n
