TEN MORE DAYS

"Everything is fine for the dedication of our new building," said John Hamilton, assistant professor of Chemistry. "The building is nearly completed and will be ready for dedication at the end of the month. We will have a grand opening ceremony on the 15th, and everyone is invited to attend."

The new building will house the Departments of Chemistry, Biology, and Physics. It will have state-of-the-art laboratories and research facilities, providing a modern and efficient environment for our students and faculty.

The dedication ceremony will feature speeches from university administrators, faculty, and students. There will also be a ribbon-cutting ceremony and a tour of the new building.

What is the dedication date for the new building?

The dedication ceremony for the new building will take place on the 15th of the month. This information is based on the announcements made by the university and the assistant professor of Chemistry.
