Attendees will be encouraged to dress in colorful attire and join in the fun.

Order of Last Two Series of Rice Lectures

The Extension Lecture Series will reach the mid-way point this week. On Tuesday, Dr. Karl Reiland will deliver a lecture on "The Search for Beauty in Art," followed by a second lecture on "The History of Artistic Taste." These lectures are part of a series focused on the evolution of art and its role in society.

Evans Returns to Institute After Work in Europe

Dr. Evans will return to the Institute after completing his work in Europe. During his trip, he is expected to deliver a series of lectures on the history of art and culture in Europe, providing valuable insights to the students and faculty.

Other Changes in Department Main Campus

Several departments on campus are undergoing changes. The Department of English is introducing a new literature course, while the Department of History is expanding its curriculum to include more modern and global perspectives. The changes are aimed at providing students with a more comprehensive understanding of the humanities.

Candy and Flowers Cost More As Day of Hearts Comes Again

Today is St. Valentine's Day, a day of over-the-top celebrations which often result in inflated prices for candy and flowers. Retailers report that the increased costs are due to supply chain disruptions and high demand for these items. Flowers, in particular, have seen a steep rise in prices as growers struggle to keep up with the demand.

Back from Europe

Dr. Evans has returned from Europe, where he delivered lectures on the history of art and culture. He is expected to share his insights and experiences with the students and faculty upon his return.

OWLS OUT TO MAKE IT FOUR STRAIGHT AT BEARS’ EXPENSE

Victory at Waco Tomorrow Night May Put Rice in the Playoffs

The Owls are looking to extend their winning streak to four games when they take on the Bears tomorrow night. A victory could put them in contention for a playoff berth. The Owls will need to perform well on both offense and defense to secure a win.

The band is ordering an additional forty uniforms to prepare for the upcoming season. The dance and bridge party continues to support the band, and the funds raised now total $114.00. The party is scheduled for this Saturday night at Astry House.
HOW ABOUT FRESHMEN?

Political announced the new freshmen of the class of 1941 an. At the time a large number of last May, will come to the next week when the freshmen class meet in college. The freshmen will be able to make a more important statement than their paper mothers, the inauguration of the new era in Rice location politics.

The student who recognizes the election weekend of last May will come to know pun, or political parties, as they have been in the past. That political campaign involving several students was the beginning of a real political campaign which must be sustained. When for years back classes have been "political" when small groups have been compared to political cliques for the purpose of disparaging something, when political parties have been taught the "win-at- whatever-cost" idea, what we might be expected.

In the past, political power has been the part in the hands of a group as a moral justification. In the race for the majority the candidates have been given more prominence than any other part. The campus naturally takes more interest in campus activities than those who do not. There is no real reason why anyone should be interested in a political meeting except the student; and are injuring the good name of Rice nominations nor the group wishes, have been favorite swindles, Student have been Very 'low standards.
