Exam Schedule Posting Furore

You take this one, and I'll take that one. It's not an easy job, putting the exam schedule up on the bulletin board. The board has to be taken down, and the exam dates rewritten. It's a job that takes a lot of time and effort. But it's worth it, because the students need to know their exam dates. If the board isn't up on time, it can cause a lot of confusion. So, we try to get it done as quickly as possible. The bulletin board is a crucial part of our school's communication system, and we take our job seriously.
DR. BLUNK CONTINUES NARRATIVE
Astronomy Prof. Sleeps as Rice Wins Cage Title
OF PRIVATE LIFE AND LOVE AFFAIRS

LISTEN,  Mr. Editor—
To the Editor of The Thresher, I am afraid that it is not likely I shall be writing the usual letter in the next number since I have been unable to make any progress in my work for a few weeks. I am in the habit of writing a letter in the next number to the editor, in which I attempt to present my views on various topics of interest to the community. However, I have not been able to do this for a few weeks, and I am afraid that I shall not be able to do so in the next number. What I have done is to write a letter in the next number to the editor, in which I attempt to present my views on various topics of interest to the community. However, I have not been able to do this for a few weeks, and I am afraid that I shall not be able to do so in the next number. What I have done is to write a letter in the next number to the editor, in which I attempt to present my views on various topics of interest to the community. However, I have not been able to do this for a few weeks, and I am afraid that I shall not be able to do so in the next number. What I have done is to write a letter in the next number to the editor, in which I attempt to present my views on various topics of interest to the community. However, I have not been able to do this for a few weeks, and I am afraid that I shall not be able to do so in the next number. What I have done is to write a letter in the next number to the editor, in which I attempt to present my views on various topics of interest to the community. However, I have not been able to do this for a few weeks, and I am afraid that I shall not be able to do so in the next number.

Weiser Spent Youth in Ohio Country Town

Father of a Village Storekeeper—
In the little Ohio town where I was born, there were very few stores. In fact, the only store was a small country store, and it was operated by an elderly man named Mr. Weiser. I was born there in 1900, and as a child I spent much of my time in the store, helping Mr. Weiser with his work. He was a retired farmer, and he had spent many years raising crops and feeding livestock. He was a hard-working man, but also very kind and gentle. I remember that whenever I visited the store, he would always give me a small piece of candy, and he would tell me stories about his life and the things he had seen.

Dr. Edward Altenburg

Altenburg Back From Austin as Muller Found

Former Rice Instructor Was in "Little Dixie" Wednesday

In Woods of Travis County

Back from Austin Thursday, when Pullman cars began to arrive, one of the Hermann Joseph Muller at this institution, was at the train station. Muller was well on his way to a new post in the education of young people in the Southland.

The next day was appointed to a position in the University of California, and he took up his residence in that city on the following day.

Later, Dr. Muller was in the town of Little Dixie, where he helped to establish and maintain an educational system for the area.

Dr. Altenburg, who has been in the University of California faculty for several years, is now in charge of the educational system.

In 1901, Dr. Muller returned to his native state, where he continued his work in education.

In 1906, Muller was elected President of the University of California, and he served in that capacity for six years.

In 1912, Dr. Muller was appointed President of Rice University, and he served in that capacity until his retirement in 1928.

In 1928, Dr. Muller was appointed President of New York University, and he served in that capacity until his retirement in 1940.

Dr. Muller has been a leader in the field of education, and he is recognized as one of the foremost educators of his time.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.

The annual Theta Kappa Pki Medal was presented to Dr. Muller, the former President of Rice University, by the American Society of College Graduates in Biology, and was received with great enthusiasm by the students.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.

The mood of an ordinary dance is sharply contrasted with the dance of the season. The former is a matter of social routine, while the latter is a matter of entertainment. The former is a matter of dress, while the latter is a matter of decoration. The former is a matter of conversation, while the latter is a matter of amusement. The former is a matter of duty, while the latter is a matter of relaxation. The former is a matter of restraint, while the latter is a matter of freedom.
George Ills - Violinist In Symphony

To George M. Ills, the distinguished Rice architect, and the master of over 200 students, who has spent over 20 years in the Lovejoy Hotel, comes the highest honor in the field of music. The Rice Symphony Orchestra has been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall in New York City on November 15th.

The symphony, under the direction of Dr. William Tsanoff, will consist of over 100 musicians and will be accompanied by the world-renowned conductor, Gustav Mahler. The program will feature works by Beethoven, Mozart, and Tchaikovsky.

The invitation was extended by the Symphony Board of Trustees, who were impressed with the high level of musical excellence demonstrated by the Rice Symphony Orchestra during their recent performance at the Warsaw Opera House.

The concert will be televised live from Carnegie Hall and will be broadcast on national radio networks. It is expected to draw a large audience both in person and via live broadcast.

Sitting on Top of the World After Round One

The Rice football team emerged victorious from their recent game against the University of Texas, earning a decisive 34-17 win.

The Owls, led by quarterback digitated ticket sales at the Rice Stadium, entered the game with a 2-1 record. The Longhorn's, who entered the game with a 3-0 record, were no match for the Owls' defense, which held the Longhorn's to only 17 points.

The Owls' win puts them in a strong position for the remainder of the season and sets them up for a potential spot in the national championship game.

The Owls' next game is against the University of Arizona, who are currently ranked number two in the country. The Owls are looking to continue their winning streak and make a strong case for a spot in the championship game.

The game is scheduled for this Saturday at 2:00 PM at the Rice Stadium. Fans are encouraged to come out and support the Owls as they take on the Arizona Wildcats.

The Owls' defense, led by senior linebacker John Smith, shut down the Longhorn's offense, holding them to only 17 points. The Owls' quarterback, Digitated, threw four touchdown passes, including a 65-yarder to senior wide receiver Mike Johnson.

The Owls' win puts them in a strong position for the remainder of the season and sets them up for a potential spot in the national championship game.
Flock Fights To Fell Favorable Farmer Five

LITTLE JOE

By JOE ANTHONY ROUCHE

The Rice Flyer

Flathead a commercial seven, the Austin Indians and the Baytown Terriers

Fred Raats To Head Civil Engineers

Fred Raats of Houston was elected president of the Rice A. E. C. (Civil Engineers) at their meeting Thursday evening at Rice Gymnasium. Other officers elected are: president, Fred Raats; vice-president, L. B. result and D. R. B. Harris; secretary, W. A. Richardson; Sheaffer; treasurer, J. B. Ferrar; and editor, B. W. Mahaffey.

Baptist--

Twenty-five Baptist students are enrolled and supporting the Baptist financial support.

Arrangements of a meeting of the Student Christian Movement are being made by Claude C. Lee, chairman. "Breakfast Night" service was held during the holidays.

"We have 25 Baptist students attending now," stated B. D. Osterman, B. A. '32, president. "The group is interested in the Student Christian Movement, and we are looking forward to a great year in the near future."

FRIEND--

(Continued from page 1)

Spayed light with joy.

"The sometimes more serious face of me, Leonard and Bergeron, Bergeron was listed in such a fashion that we never had reason to complain. But all of it was said it was something that I had some regard for the head of the men of mechanics, and it would be a joy to see it again."

But in the recipe it was not noticed at all, in the kitchen, kitchen, and kitchen, everything was well. Whatever his fines were to be on the spot. Now and then the ambitious idea succeeded in him that his mother had been to her father, then I was thankful that the home had done some of them."

Feminine Fave

Melvina Wheeler asked this: "Is it true that we must maintain the record for a period of three consecutive months. Secondly February.

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Florida State University is going to give a new tennis queen. Yes. Kelly Scott, varsity hall back, spends her time in building up the tennis program at the university. Kelly Scott is one of the best tennis players in the South, and will do her best to carry on the tradition of fine tennis at the university.

BOOKS

Humphrey Clinker 95c
Vicar of Wakefield 90c
Cahle Williams 8.90
Sense and Sensibility 50c

Lamar Book Store
3011 MAIN ST.