Panics during Washington's Times issue.

"The night show, those in charge declared, will be a two-and-a-half hour presentation of the dramatic scene at the Ritz-Carlton Cafe in Shanghai, May 25, with an estimated attendance of 1000."

In the Roman Empire, "explained Prof. J. H. Pound, head of the department of mechanical engineering at Rice, "in the hands of a master of the art, he is a kind individual, ready to demonstrate the "truth" of his work to anyone who cares to see it."

"From the ranks of the Institute, we have a whole new generation of men who are ready to take part in our work and to gain experience and knowledge," said Dr. Robert W. Gilchrist, general manager of the Institute. "They will at least think that there is "some" reality in what we do, and that their work is important."

Formal Opening Saturday

"A Shop Within A Store" Shop College, Fourth Floor, Foley Iron

A brand new department tempting youth in its appointments and in the young fashions it presents.

The Shop College will be getting a dandy rush tomorrow, from the lovely young ladies. It's a terrific beauty, but we have just the sort of clothes that will go over, and go over by a huge margin, we're sure. With the spring rush on, we present has been chosen with an eye for freshness of style. I don't think traditionality and breathtaking value. If you know what was in store for you, you wouldn't miss being there for the week.

Pattie Reads, Hill Climbs, Raises Chicks

Frank Allison Pattee Jr., B. A. (Vanderbilt), M. A. (Harvard), and Ph. D. (Princeton), has just poured an article in German written in collaboration with a German, for the American edition of the Thresher. The article concerns the word "geschwindigkeits," a kind of wind that is not affected by the moving objects in the wind. At the time of writing, Dr. Pattee was feeling well again, after a long illness. He is back in Houston, although he is shortly to return to his work in Germany. Frank Allison Pattee Jr. is known as professor of psychology at Rice University.

BELL SYSTEM

and that's what the statistician does for industry

Definite knowledge of "where we are" and "what lies ahead!" it is vital in business as in flying. For this expert navigates, the Bell System has long relied upon statisticians. These men study present and prospective industrial, economic and social conditions in all parts of the country. They gather facts, prepare graphs, and draw conclusions that are vital to the telephone business, draw guidance from them. They study and forecast the changing requirements of the public for telephone service. They estimate the probable future demand for new services such as radio telephone to foreign lands and keep the executives advised as to current progress towards the objectives carefully and thoughtfully.

Only by planning a course scientifically can the Bell System continue to develop along sound lines.

SHOE SALON=MEZZANINE

"T'd hate to be called an Outdoor Girl!"

THAT usually means a girl's a total loss in a tent or a-crate, and takes up 'nature' as a last resort! But I must confess a liking for hills and forest trees—and all genuine natural things.

"I like the simple sincerity of Chesterfield's advertising. Have you noticed it? There's no exaggeration in the claims. Just everyday facts about the fine tobacco that select and the painstaking way they develop the flavor and aroma.

"I've never smoked a mild brand. All except the finest of the flavor . . . a fine, natural tobacco taste. They burn well, too. Either they're rolled more carefully or the papers' better for the greatest confidence in Chesterfield. They satisfy me!"
