English Students Aflame!

Emily Grinnell, of Amherst College, recently returned home to the office of the registrar at Amherst with the good news that she had been offered a scholarship for the coming year. The announcement was made in the college bulletin.

The scholarship is a full tuition scholarship, and Emily Grinnell is one of the outstanding students of her class. She has won several prizes for her work in English, and is a member of the English club.

It is expected that Emily Grinnell will continue her studies at Amherst, and that she will make a valuable contribution to the college in the coming year.

EGGS

Truck Turns Over On Main Highway

The egg truck which was involved in an accident on the main highway has been repaired and is now running again.

The accident occurred when the truck struck the back of a car which had stopped suddenly. The driver of the truck was able to control his vehicle, and the only damage was to the egg truck.

Aid Workers Call For More Funds

Aid workers are calling for more funds to be raised in order to continue their work. They have been operating on a very limited budget, and are in need of additional support.

The workers have been operating in the area for several months, and have been successful in providing aid to many people. They are now looking for more funds to continue their work.

COFFEE

Miss Carter Speaks on Coffee

Miss Carter, a member of the coffee committee, spoke at the meeting of the committee this week. She discussed the problems which the committee is facing, and the steps which are being taken to solve them.

The committee is working hard to provide the best possible coffee for the students, and is making good progress. Miss Carter encouraged everyone to continue their support of the committee.

Spring Schedule

The spring schedule for the college has been announced. Classes will begin on March 1, and will continue until May 31.

The schedule includes a wide variety of courses, and is designed to meet the needs of all students. The college has worked hard to provide a stimulating and challenging curriculum.

The spring schedule is now available in the registrar's office.
LITTLE JOE

By JOE ARTHUR KOCUREK

As a parting shot at the past basketball season, this edition of "Little Joe" is dedicated to a wild copy of statistics on the various possibilities of what could have happened next if different choices had been made. But enough about the present.
