The Gasser

Well here we are on the front page
and we are predicted on a sunny day.
Just like the weather, the story of MORRIS PATTERSON and others is about to be a big shot in his own campus. His was all revealed in BOB I^feNNON, man-about-town and
Owl contributor; KEMP LEWIS, soph
Booster and member of the Engrs.
In other years people used to go to the Iowa Wesleyan College to watch the enterprises, but this year ALLEN PARIS will put on a show under the guidance of the others. There is a great deal to see in this contest. It's quite an event for Owl members; DEMP LEWIS, editor; and Larry Hamilton, members of the new firm that is to open up on Main Street next week.

Debate On Capitalization To Be Held
In Albert S. Johnstone Hall

The following elections of the P. A.
debating society will be held in Albert S.
Johnstone Hall Thursday night at 7:30.
The two schools will open a new season of debates with a discussion on the subject, "Who shall control the world's capitalization?"

Rice and Vandy pick on this subject and are considered strong.

Dr. C. R. W. Byrd, president of Vanderbilt University, will serve as president of the jury, while Rev. Dr.
J. T. Denmark, presiding judge of the debates, will serve as chairman.

The Rice University debate society will have as members: S. W. Allen, Drake, W. O. Smith, Paul, V. S. Hull,
and R. L. Jones.

Letters to the Editor:

To the Editor of The Thresher:

It was with a feeling of deep regret that I read the editorial in your last issue, "The Harvard Case." I have known [name] from the time he was a student at the Rice Institute, and I have always been impressed with his knowledge and ability. I am certain that he will make a great contribution to the field of engineering and that his name will be remembered for generations to come.

Yours sincerely,

In spring training, this job was given to Bob Maes. This job was handled by the seniors of last year. The seniors of last year were responsible for the ends and the tackles from the freshman squad.

Fred Lauterbach, a tackle, was given this job. He is responsible for the defensive line. His job is to prevent the other team from scoring.

Clark Schulze, and Harold Michelson are the members of the senior class. They are responsible for the offensive line. Their job is to protect the quarterback and to create holes for the running back.

Jim Byrd from end, and Mark Kivell from fullback, will split fullback honors among them. These two players are responsible for the running game.

The members of the junior class are also responsible for their positions. They are John Kivell, Doc Metzler, and Flash Atwell. They are responsible for the running game and for creating holes for the running back.

The members of the senior class have ample reason for expecting him to be successful. They have shown this in their past performances. They have been successful in their previous spring training sessions.

In addition to the players, the coaches are also responsible for their positions. They are Joe Byers, the head coach, and Bill Foster, the assistant coach. They are responsible for the overall strategy of the team. They are responsible for making sure that the team is prepared for the game and that they have a good strategy.

The team will split the fullback honors among John Kivell, Doc Metzler, and Flash Atwell. These players are responsible for the running game.

Scouting The Owls
BY WALTER SMITH

Meagher is Not Discouraged
Our afternoon last week, Coach Meagher took the team down to the court, and we ranged them somewhat leisurely.
"Pilots," I was a bit surprised at this time, "have their chances to show their win over the Panthers, and the complete look was all the more effective. You men look as if you knew you had me in mind, and I tell you the fact for dissociation is now.
After the start of spring training, the boys shown enthusiasm and skill at their instruction and the coach was right in the midst of things. Just three years ago you may say that I had reason for optimism, I have. It is not, however, for the fact that we are not discouraged. In the center of our training is the fact that we are working on the basis that it is not too early to get in a good start.

Kitts Asks All Cagers To Report
Coach Kitts issued a call last week for spring basketball training, the field found on hand.

A couple of the names who should report are Harold Anderson, Harry Dietrich, Eddie Stoudt, and Jayne McCullough. Replies from the names, who will report are Red McDonald, Horace Kitts, and Bob Broych.

Pilots, who are expected to be on hand are Henry Trop, William Smith, and Frank Kelly.

If you feel that you are not doing your best work, you can take a couple of hours in the gym. Do not get discouraged, and think for a minute that you are out of the running by a long shot. If each one works for him, the team will have the best chance to win.

Kitts Asks All Cagers To Report
One afternoon last week, Coach Kitts met with the basketball squad to discuss the training. Coach Kitts is quite an ardent en

Blues Defeat Grays In Net Tournament
In a series of nine matches, ending in six singles and three doubles, the Blue team won the Automatic Net Tournament.

Owl Cagemen Turn Out Monday
The Owls men are very encouraging. Coach Kitts' team is not discouraged, and will work hard to win the season. The teams greatest setback was the scarcity of seasoned material. The conference grind. The Varsity played the matches to two. This was the first time that the Owls men were very encouraging. Coach Kitts' team is not discouraged, and will work hard to win the season. The teams greatest setback was the scarcity of seasoned material.

A Tip To The Boys
If you wish to purchase Rye, do not forget to buy "Camels". The "Camels" are a regular part of a magician's outfit. The flower girl is a trap door in the bottom of the flower pot, and the flower girl was hidden behind the drapes of the table. The girl was hiding behind the drapes of the table.
