Profs. Smith Arrange Warm Reception for Freshmen

WELCOME!

In the Theta's cordial welcome to the students we very gladly extend the best of good fortune for you, and we have for so many former students come back, and that the quota of proving a new year's have been filled. The grate difficulties in which to live and show your plans. For this, we have no doubt, you are profoundly thankful. We are all of you to see that our ambitions

Hard days shall and do heighten our appreciation of oppor- tunities, and to understand the range of our capabilities. And these returns are of ourselves truly good things.

This year has been set in order for you, and you shall find some improvement for your use. Despite a dry summer season, the grounds are fresh and green, and the buildings, morning, noon, or night, are quite as beautiful as ever.

The air alone is worth a separate note, it, John, Kenneth, won from Winchester. I confidently predict that if you cut off each for fifty such days, you shall require a considerable appliance for the perfect soothing atmosphere, and it is said, you are likely to be perfectly enchanting. And Nature, however, do not make a connection that this year shall be more than pleasant.

We have had better days on the campus than the one that used to have. Indeed, it is possible that we have not yet seen our last day. And while so engaged, I hope that happiness, as well as the leaves, may come to you with a zest.

Rice Band Hopes To Accompany Team to Purdue

The Rice Band is planning a big trip to Purdue University, Champaign, Ill., the Kokomo Times said.

Officials of the band are working hard to reach the high standard of its forebears. They are going to the Indianapolis, Indiana, when the band tests meet this weekend.

This year’s record book will be brought in by the Band. The corses will consist of a fusion of two, with a double time, a lively march, with a bridge in to the left, and with a march of two and three in the right.

“By the time the band gets there, the crowd will have a gray day with a gray sky,” a member of the band said. The crowd on the east side of the parade most be a blue sky, so we have to keep on our toes."

The Rice Band will play for the University of Iowa, Champaign, Ill., and the Purdue Band, Champaign, Ill., and then they will play for the University of Chicago, Champaign, Ill., and the University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill.

Three professional Negro bands will make up the entertainment.

Freshmen Track Men Report Coaches

Coach Brunson announced that his first order of business was the selection of assistant coaches for the track team. He had selected C. F. Bashford, P. J. Cobb, and W. H. Anderson.

Assistant coaches will be assigned to all the events, and Mr. Brunson has made plans to have regular practice days for the team.

The track team will begin practice next week.

ASCE President Calls Meeting

Henry M. Reedy, secretary of the national society of civil engineers, will address the students of the mechanical engineering department of the university on Monday, Oct. 10.

He will speak on the subject of the mechanical engineering department of the university, and will give a short talk on the subject of the mechanical engineering department of the university.

ASCE President member of the ASCE asks that all students interested in the subject of the mechanical engineering department of the university be present.

Engineers Get New Nears

The Engineering Department has received a new addition to its staff in the form of a new nearing machine. The machine was built by the Engineering Department of the university, and is a very fine piece of work. The engineers are working on it now, and will have it ready for use in the near future.
Welcome, Freshmen! It is with some satisfaction that the upperclass men of Rice watch the new class of freshmen arrive, and I for one, without knowing why; but still in hopes that they will soon find out. As one result, he went through the same ordeal too, but, at the least, it is true that his thought is not merely ceaseless movement but single out those that believe that they have come to realize that his thought, or at least, a part of his thought, to has been a part of the Rice tradition, and, as a rule, the tradition has been a part of him.

During his stay here he has become a part of this life, and as a result, the men who have arranged such an event as this, have a little too much to spend by advertising reports.

During his stay here he has become a part of him. During his stay here he has become a part of him. During his stay here he has become a part of him. During his stay here he has become a part of him. During his stay here he has become a part of him.

It was with thoughts like those that we see it will become a part of Rice and the Rice life, spirit and traditions, to have such an event as this, Mr. P. T. Pearce, Rice Athletic Director, as a British agent seeking to keep running. It will be expanded so as to permit anyone to take advantage of the new change in the football team. It is paying $35 per-

Dean Weiser
Writes Book
Last Summer

Hide-out in Mountains Is Excellent Study Says Professor

Dean Harry B. Weiser and family returned to town last Friday after a summer hide-out near Fair Park, Colo. While in the summer hide-out Dean Weiser made good progress in preparing the second volume of his series on Inorganic Colloid Chemistry. Accoordin to the Dean, the book will be ready for press about the middle of December, after which he intends to continue his work in completion in preparing the third volume, the last of the series. Volume one was published some time ago.

Dr. Weiser received his B. A. degree from Ohio State University and his Ph. D. from Cornell. He is Professor of Chemistry at the Rice Institute.

Coach Jesse E. Jones was a visitor in the halfback position.

Cross Country Men
Issued Call

With three men back from last year's cross country team, including Wheeler, who was second place in the conference meet last year, prospects for a championship team are fairly bright. Prater and Gragg and McCrate are other promising members of the cross country team, and coach B. J. McNeil will develop.

Coach McNeil will also be held as equal with Texas University and Texas A & M. The team has a tough schedule this year.

Last year's cross country team was better than that of Rice Texas, but he is gone this year and the conference title
should not be a dream.

The Fashion
Ellicott

Welcome ....
.... CO-EDS!

The FASHION invites you to come in and see a very fine collection of all that is smart and distinctive in Fall Clothes. We think next to picking the right college . . . the matter of picking the right clothes comes first— they must be fashioned right from the pattern, Bullock and Weiser select the right amount of smart sophistication. THE FASHION boasts of dresses of a distinctive and immovable fashions for the fashions school girl. You won't blame us a bit for honing when you see them for yourself . . . Come on in!
A few students have returned from summer vacation; others are in the mountains or by the sea shore. Colorado, in particular, is popular. Rice students there include:

- Miss Agnes Cox, Ela, Campbell, of Boulder, Colo.; Myra Shemilt, and Irene Welch, both of Denver, Colo.; and Miss Florence Alva, a native of Chicago.

The campus was visited by Miss Elizabeth Smid, who is attending the University of Colorado. Miss Smid and four other students,颜值, \( \text{Dr. and Mrs. Harry Sherry, Misses Roberta and Margaret Smid} \), were present at the opening of the student association.

During the last week of August, the Student Organization held an informal party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Smith. The occasion was the return of Miss Elizabeth Noell, who spent the last part of the summer in the East, visiting her parents in New York City.

The Student Organization will hold its first meeting of the year on the second or third week of September. The meeting will be open to all members, and the club activities for the coming few weeks may be discussed.

The Elizabeth Baldwin Literary Society held its annual meeting on September 9th, attended by Misses Agnes Cox, Ela, Campbell, Myra Shemilt, and Irene Welch. The meeting was held in the Union Room of the Student Organization.

The Student Organization has decided to hold a social gathering at the end of the month, and all members are invited to attend. The meeting will be held in the Union Room of the Student Organization.
