Denton Wise Heads Rice Scholars For Graham Baker Award

Friends of Rice Add Three More Scholarships To Reward Twenty-Five Undergraduates
"Brain Trusts."

Denton Belford Wise, of Paris, Texas, was named Graham Baker Scholar for the academic year 1935-36, according to information received from the Registrar's office. The Graham Baker Scholarship is awarded annually to the undergraduate student at the Rice Institute who is the highest ranked student in his senior year. Inasmuch as Wise is also a member of the baseball team, he is the only double winner ever announced for the highest scholarship in the senior class.

Dr. Harry B. Weiser, Professor of Chemistry and Dean of the Faculty, has issued the following statement: "The selection of this young man as a Graham Baker Scholar is the reward of a truly noble spirit. His years at Rice have been a period of constant advancement and improvement, culminating in a thorough-acquaintance with the highest level of scholarship and research."

New Students Get Physical Exam Shortly

Intramural Program Opens For Freshmen Tours Will Start Soon

All freshmen and new students of the Institute will report to the field house for a physical examination on the morning of Tuesday, September 24th. From 9:00 to 12:00, all students may see the various exhibitions which comprise the Institute's annual physical training course. Demonstrations will be given in trends and activities and a new sport or game to which a large number of students are to participate. In the football session, intramural regular football may be taken, provided the classes show interest in it. The football season ends with the initiation of the freshmen this year, and as of that date all freshmen will be eligible to participate in any sport or activity.

NEWSMEN WANTED

Photos For Annual Can Be Taken Now
In an effort to make the 1964 Campus the best book ever published, a campaign has been organized to obtain pictures of every student, faculty, and student organization on campus. The campaign will extend through the month of October, and students are requested to submit photographs to the Campus Life office. The campaign is sponsored by the Student Life Committee of the Student Council and is being conducted in cooperation with the Student Life Committee of the Student Council.

Some tips on taking good pictures include:
1. Use a tripod to keep the camera steady.
2. Make sure the subject is in focus.
3. Use a fast shutter speed to freeze motion.
4. Pay attention to lighting and exposure.
5. Use a wide-angle lens for group shots.

The deadline for submitting photographs is November 15. All photographs submitted will be entered in a drawing for a prize package.

The charge for pictures will be our usual 25 cents per picture. These are the terms and conditions:
1. All pictures will be taken on the campus.
2. Only one picture per student will be accepted.
3. Pictures will be processed within one week.
4. Pictures will be returned to the student with the original 25 cents.
5. Pictures may be picked up at the Campus Life office.

Hepburn Stars In Booth Tarkington's "Alice Adams"

BY PAULINE LECHENGER

Everyone who dApps who knows what it is to spend hours daydreaming, who knows what it is to spend hours looking out the window, who shares with the Virginian the delights of a vacation, will welcome the return of "Alice Adams" to the stage. This play, by Booth Tarkington, is set in the Virginia countryside and is a realistically written picture of life in that area.

The play opens on the morning of Mrs. Adams' birthday, when she learns that her husband has been invited to a party. Mrs. Adams is a woman of the old school, and she is not pleased with her husband's decision to attend the party. She feels that he should have stayed home and taken care of the farm, and she is angry with him for going to the party.

But Mrs. Adams is a woman of strong will, and she is not easily discouraged. She decides to go to the party herself, and she sets out to prove to her husband that she is the better farmer. She is successful, and she wins the respect of her husband and the other farmers in the community.

The play is a realistic portrayal of life in the Virginia countryside, and it is a good example of the kind of drama that Booth Tarkington is best known for. It is a play that is full of humor and pathos, and it is a play that is sure to please anyone who enjoys good drama.

Students of Rice are finding that the men of Rice are going to considerable expense to publish this issue. Reporters—Virginia Barnes, Harper Leiper, Vallee Adams.

The Rice Thresher is a new innovation, designed to serve the purpose of the college in America and will circulate among more than three hundred colleges throughout the United States. The Rice Thresher has gone to considerable expense to print this issue.

The editorial staff has been working for some months to produce this issue and it is hoped that the new issue will meet with the best teams in the country in the present year in the opinion of Lloyd Gregory. Houston Post sports editor;

Whether it be in football, basketball, track, or golf, let us all pull together to maintain that standard these people have labored so industriously for.

Student Benefactors

The internal finances of Rice are in the best condition. Among the new students entering the college this year are Margaret Turner, Louise Neary, J. L. Duncan, Mary Flowers, Mary Lewis, and Jeanne Smilow. An ordinance for making these students will be announced among Houstonians. Their organization is doing a great work toward bringing a closer relationship between Rice and the city.

The student body as well as the merchants are looking forward eagerly to the coming football season.
