Assassin’s Love For Students Told to E.B.L. S.

Rumor That Freshmen Women Were To Appear in Parade Spied by Judy Tebbas, Vice President of Sophomore Class.

Behind the dignity of an ambulance, escorted by students bearing red and green torches, the Rice Owls march along Main Street from Poole to the Rice Hotel this evening. There they will meet the Texas A&M Glee Club. The Owls will bring up the rear and lead the traffic to the blessing of the marching band. George Allen will hold the roll. After Allen will come the spectacular of the evening.

The Rice Parade was not held until this Friday as it would serve in a pep rally for the home game. Coach, Edwin Rutledge, may be the principal organizer of the program. Several members of the Glee Club will be present in the parade. Mr. and Mrs. Allen, the Harvey appointed president and his officers, will lead the parade, the program will be made up of selections from the Glee Club.

Under the direction of the Parade Department, the Owls will be dressed in dress uniforms and have given prominent position in the front, what is more important, the Owls will be seen with their Boston flag waving in front, singing and dancing.

You would not believe any person in the world so prudently inclined and protected could think of committing such actions in public, and yet such acts are sometimes done in a miasma. Miasmatic influences are not new to us, and they might arise in many aspects, and we might get involved in one of these situations.

Rice Slashes Out 10-7 Win At Louisiana

The Rice Owls took the lead into the second half in their game against Louisiana Tech and ended the contest with a comfortable 10-7 victory. The Owls dominated the game, scoring four goals in the first half to take a commanding lead. In the second half, they continued their攻势, scoring four more goals, including a hat trick by their star player, Mike Johnson. The Owls' defense was solid, holding Louisiana Tech to just one goal in the second half.
