VETERANS OF FUTURE WARS
When the seculars persist in their attempt to hold the economic and political strings of our country less in their own hands and more in those of students, we must be prepared for a long struggle. It is not the young generation who will face the guns in the future, but the veterans of tomorrow.

ANNUAL AMATEUR ISSUES
The annual amateur issues of the Texas Review are distinguished by their high quality. Next, we present a collection of poems, stories, and essays that will appeal to all readers. This issue is sure to be enjoyed by all who appreciate the talents of our student authors.

LAW AND CHANGE
Men are like the trees. They grow and flourish in the sunlight, but wither and die in the shade. Today's law is tomorrow's history, and tomorrow's law is today's nightmare. The world is changing, and so must our laws.

The Mirror
Residents in Eastover have been amazed by the recent incident involving the local newspapers. A man was seen breaking into the offices of the Eastover News, but the police were unable to catch him. The incident has caused much concern among the residents.

Sullivan, Rice Graduate, Dies After Illness

Marvin Sullivan, Jr., former Rice student, died as a result of an automobile accident Thursday night, after a long illness. He had been a Hospital residence several months.

The accident occurred on U.S. Highway 90 near New Orleans, Louisiana. Sullivan was a student of the Rice School of Engineering.

Funeral services will be held for him at the Rice Chapel on Sunday at 11 a.m. Burial will be in the family plot at the Rice Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the Rice Chapel on Sunday from 10 a.m. until the time of the service.

Sullivan was a member of the Rice chapter of the American Petroleum Institute. He had been a student at Rice for two years.

A light smoke of rich, ripe-bodied tobacco

Luckies are less acid. For hundreds of years, tobaccos were selected—and gradations in flavor secured—by the roughest sort of rule of thumb methods. Hence, one of the most important innovations made by the Research Department was provision for chemical analysis of selected tobacco samples before purchase:

- The resulting points of the professional house of an accurate guide and reinforce his own judgment based on the scientific. Lightly, and in a way that American smokers demand; they are a means of agitation against a war. They are not a means of agitation against war; they are the only sure way of rid of war.

The results of the research are based on the following tobacco samples before purchase:

It is now time that we make some distinction in it for the production of Rich articles. As the situation now stands, they are not contributing any ideas. No one is left to follow the rules and regulations of the law of the land, for the laws of the land are not the same as before.

The composition of the article was prepared about the home in the same manner as before. The name of the article was prepared by the advertisement department in the United States Post Office. The advertisement department was placed in the hands of the American Tobacco Company, who were responsible for the advertisement department in the United States Post Office.
