Rice is no exception to the general practice of the College—Commencement as an important social event. In general, class organizations hold the biggest events of the Spring term, in that each class holds a reunion at every five-year anniversary of its graduation.

This year will see the reunion of the Senior class of 1936. The Class of 36 will hold the 1938 reunion for the Senior Class of 1936, a year after its own. The event will be sponsored by the Rice Alumni Association and will be directed by Mr. Battista, who in a former capacity served as a committee member of the event.

The Class of 36 will be represented by the most successful and accomplished members of that year's class. The Class of 36 is the only class to have a reunion every five years, because of the smallness of the class.

The officers to be elected are

Senior American On Rice Roof; Final Ball Has Two Orchestras

Anson Weeks and Orchestra To Play for Both Functions; Lee Waters, Buster Dees To Open Final Ball; Weeks Plays 1-3.

Two orchestras will play for the Final Ball of the 1938 senior class. Charles Moore, president, announced this week. As was noticed last week, Anson Weeks and his orchestra will be chief entertainers for the Final Ball on June 8 and the Americans on the morning of June 9. At the Final Ball however, Lee Waters and his orchestra, featuring Buster Dees, singer formerly with Harry Buss, will start the music for the evening. The Final Ball will be held in the air-conditioned Rice Terrace, and the Americans will be on the Roof Garden.

Waters will play from 10:30 to 12:30. At the end of this period the crowd will go "dancing wit' Doc." Also Aberhart will switch out its precious old time music band and go right in on the dance. At 12:30, the ball leading will drop.
