Editor's Note

Dear Sir:

I much want you to perform some routine tasks and not fry my noggin. I think in order to get an early start, you should have someone look after a Flash Gordon SPOOK CLUB. Of course then in the SALLY CLUB hall is a purely selective organization with everyone making the grade.

There comes a time to every man, some day there will be no more morning coffee. And then there's no more sugar. And then there's no more morning coffee again.

Yours sincerely.

Editor's Notes

I have followed with great interest the comments you put on each newspaper selection which have appeared in the "B. C. A. Evening Spirit" section for the past few years. As such, I would like you to give some consideration to the following points:

First, the selection of newspapers should be based on their quality, content, and relevance to the readers.

Second, it is important to ensure that the selection process is transparent and unbiased.

Third, the selection should be based on the readers' preferences and feedbacks.

I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
