Soph Dance Bid Set to Continue Till February

Tickets for the Soph Ball which have an end in the Sullivan for the last two years, but according to the plans of the Sophomore Council, will be sold at a reduced price of $1.00 each on Friday, February 2.

The Soph Ball is to be a bonfire dance and all the affair will be to relieve the Saturday night crisis of the Underclassmen and to give the Sophomores a chance to dance without the price restraint of $1.00.

The event will take place at the Rice Gymnasium next Friday night, February 2.

Owl Cagers Face Big Bad Exams During Week

Next week Rice's undergraduate, championship-hungry Owls will face exams which will determine the end of their academic careers in a hundred different subjects. The annual undergraduate students' study tables will be crowded with books, notes, chessmen and markers, and all save the few hardy exceptions will be waging a bitter struggle for the show.

The exams will allow the first week of March to proclaim the dignity of the underclassmen inasmuch as they have already been promoted.

Mr. Lloyd, the titular role of Twelfth Night-Come-True, has begun his reign of Jovian excess, with an anachronistic, wistful, and amoral approach that is as much a reminder of the time-honored traditions of Shakespeare as it is a nod to the modern. With a lilt and elegance that is both aristocratic and debonair, Mr. Lloyd commands the stage with a grace that is both regal and humble, a mixture that is both charming and captivating.

MARY WINFIELD

SMU Soph to Be Crosby's Guest on Hollywood Trip

Mary Winfield, Southern Methodist University's student correspondent, will be the guest of Bing Crosby during their current stay in Town. Crosby is a member of the board of directors of the school and is a frequent visitor to the campus. Winfield has been covering the school's activities for several years, and her presence on the campus has been a welcome addition to the student body.
