ARCHI-ARTS COSTUME BALL MONDAY NIGHT

Six Candidates Apply For Appointment As Association President

Paden And Mace Slated For Class Race For Appointment; Much, Jarvis, May, and Dunsby Also Before Council For Consideration.

By GENE SISK

Interest shown in the appointment of the new president of the Student Association this week as six candidates banded in applications for appointment. The vacancy was created when Charlie Pim-nett, president since September, dropped out of school previous to the midterm exams.

A. B. Pierce, Phil Paden, Walter Jarvis, Herbert May, Henry Dun-sby, and Joe Math submitted petitions to Harold Rask, treasurer of the Student Association.

Each candidate is to present his views concerning the duties of the presidency during the appointment meeting set for Monday, at 7:30. It is expected that the meetings will last at least two hours.

The meeting is open to all members of the student body.

The three major duties of the president are to preside at all of the meetings of the Student Council, to represent the students in their interests in the community, and to each quarter, to draw up a budget for the Student Council.

The meeting will be held in the Lecture Hall.

Annual Archi-Arts Ball

The most colorful affair of the Rice Institute social season, the annual costume ball of the Archi-Arts Society, will be held Monday night at River Oaks.

"Much Ado About Shakespeare," on Portia To Warden has been selected by the society as the theme of the ball. W. J. Anderson, president of the society, suggested the theme.

The party will begin with cocktails and light hors d'oeuvres.
Dinner will be served at 8 p.m., followed by the play. The parade will be presented at 9:45 p.m., with the dance to follow.

A buffet supper will be served.

The ballroom will be decorated in Shakespearean style.
