Sonnet to L. S.
—By Harry Holt

I do not seek much of life. Just naming
The simple things that God has given me
With the calm assurance of his great love
To live in peace of soul with Him above.
Yet my heart has always longed for beauty
In every part of life. "This is a duty
Of mine to weave the flowers into a song.
To repeat to woods the bird's lovely wail.
To turn for nature for beautiful things
That no Material Man can ever bring.
And so to satisfy my longing soul
And fill all life with his presence.
I thank God he has given them rich blue.
To set this earth all over lovely.

Wolcott Sets Records In High, Low Hurdles To Pace Owls To Win
Calvin Bell Sets New Record In Half Mile And Wins Mile; Sprint Relay Team Gives Rice Fourth Record As They Eke Out Victory.

Led by Fred Wolcott, sensational middle distance runner, the Owls smashed records Tuesday in the Southwest Conference Track Meet. Wolcott captured the 440-yard run and the half mile and was sure of at least third place and possibly first in the mile, which has not been run in the conference this year.

Wolcott won three first places and was nearly a winner in another. Bell won the half mile, the mile and picked up valuable points in the 880-yard run, where he tied for first place. In the mile, he trounced the Owls to win the 880-yard run; Bell, Rice; Smith, T. C. U., time; 4:28.3 by 1.2 seconds. Clyde Littlefield, 220-yard low hurdles; and another in the 220-yard flat broke the conference record. Wolcott was leading in the half mile when Patterson tripped and dropped out of the race. He later returned to win the 880-yard run.

In the mile, Littlefield won a narrowly edge victory. The 220-yard low hurdles A. & M.; 120-yard high hurdles; and another in the 220-yard flat broke the conference record. Wolcott was leading in the half mile when Patterson tripped and dropped out of the race. He later returned to win the 880-yard run.
