MAURAUT AND VINCENT SPEAK AT GRADUATION

The international aspect of the university of the South will be presented at the two p.m. on May 19 in the auditorium by Dr. Otto Mauraut and Mr. Vincent Martin. Both are members of the Rev. Dr. Vincent of the Methodist Church. Dr. Mauraut is a native of France and since 1918 has been the Bishop of the French Mission. He is an expert in the field of French literature. Mr. Martin is a native of England and has been the Bishop of the American Mission since 1942. He is an authority on English literature.

THE WHEELS GO ROUND AND ROUND

The plan should be thoroughly discussed and put in effect. The present council is subject to the will of the students of the university, and it is for that reason, and that reason alone, that the plan will replace the present half a dozen rules.
