Things Are Looking Up at the University

The inauguration ceremonies of Dr. Homer Price Rainey have been so successful that it is likely they will be the beginning of a new era for the University of Texas. The influence of the new administration has been so great that it is likely to be seen in the university's progress throughout the year.

Merry Christmas and a happy new year. And we do. There is one who is anxious, they say.

We must Be There to Receive It

Note one who has said that the spirit of Christmas is best shown by the company of the people. We believe that the spirit of Christmas has been best shown by the people of the University of Texas. And we believe that the University of Texas has been best shown by the people of the University of Texas.

Student Council Will Vote Monday

Yesterday afternoon the Student Council met to discuss the question of whether or not the council should vote on the matter of the new administration. The council decided to vote on the matter, and the vote will be taken tomorrow.

Partial Report

By Pat Whisnant

Texas and Rice meet tonight in the Cotton Bowl at 6 p.m., in what promises to be the most important game of the season for either team. The Owls, who are off to a 5-2 start, are holding the only spot in the Southwest Conference that will not be determined by the game.

All-Opponent

The President then cited the story of the railroad men who were laid off and who, when asked by their employer why they were not needed, answered, "We don't know. They won't give us the schedule." Dr. Lovett urged the students to keep an open mind and to be prepared for any eventuality.

Final Round

The president, on the other hand, cited the story of a man who was asked by his boss why he was not needed. "We don't know," the man answered. "They won't give us the schedule." Dr. Lovett urged the students to be prepared for any eventuality.

Reserved Power

It is not clear whether the president was referring to the railroad men or the man in the story. However, he concluded his address with the statement, "Let us be prepared for anything that may happen."
