THAT Jimmy Kite was dismissed from Rice as head football coach and that the Aggies was the Southwest Conference's leading club will surely remain as highlights of the 1939 football season. At the same time, those who were looking for something happening in the life of the institution of higher education in the Lone Star State will find that the dismissal of Jimmy Kite as head football coach was but a step toward the implementation of the plan of the Board of Trustees to promote a better system of intercollegiate football.

But it wasn't long before the spirit of free speech and the free enterprise of the ordinary citizen was felt. At the same time, there was a growing feeling among the students that the administration was not entirely as it should be. The students were growing restless, and there was a feeling of uncertainty as to whether they would be able to continue their studies at Rice. In the meantime, the Board of Trustees was looking into the matter, and it was decided to appoint a special committee to investigate the charges.

The committee was composed of respected citizens of the city, and it was given complete authority to investigate the charges. After a thorough investigation, the committee was able to report that the administration was not entirely as it should be. The committee recommended the dismissal of Jimmy Kite as head football coach.

At the same time, the Board of Trustees was able to report that the administration was not entirely as it should be. The Board of Trustees recommended the dismissal of Jimmy Kite as head football coach. The committee's report was accepted by the Board of Trustees, and Jimmy Kite was dismissed from his position as head football coach at Rice.

The students were very pleased with the news, and they were glad that the administration was being held accountable for its actions. At the same time, the Board of Trustees was very pleased with the news, and they were glad that Jimmy Kite was being held accountable for his actions.

WHAT is the secret of successful intelligence in the world of today? That is the question which has been asked by many people. The answer to this question is that the secret of successful intelligence is the ability to think independently. In other words, the secret of successful intelligence is the ability to think for oneself and to form one's own opinions.

The ability to think independently is important in today's world, because the world is becoming more and more complex. The world is becoming more and more complex, and it is becoming more and more difficult to think independently. In order to think independently, one must be able to think for oneself and to form one's own opinions.
