Bustee Dance Will Be Held Tomorrow At Arabia Temple

Kit Reid's Orchestra Will Play For Affair At Which Mid-Term Flunk-Outs Are Admitted Free

Mid-term "bustees" will be honored guests at the first Saturday night dance of the year from 8 to 11, in the Temple of the Arabia Temple, 1322 Texas Avenue, according to Billy Bryan, chairman of the Arabia Temple.

Music will be furnished by Kit Reid and his orchestra.

All members admitted free from the box-office will be admitted to the dance and presentation of their grade cards at the door, and Bryan for all others attending will be charged.

"There should be a large turnout for this week's dance," Bryan said, "because members who've been flunked out could be to study in the Temple.

The dance will be held at noon Thursday preceding each February 26, in the sallyport from 12 to 1 p.m., Monday.

The guests will be a rehearsal of "Pulling the Strings on the Tower," which will be enacted during the intermission.

These Dancees Merit Our Attention

The next two Rice dances should receive an expanded public in the anticipation which the seniors have built up. The Senior Prom, which is to be held Thursday evening, is supposed to be the last chance to show off in style. The Student Council has turned out its best and is hoping to win a majority of the students. The students are expected to show up in full force to support their favorite dance. The Student Council has worked hard to make this the best dance of the year and it is sure to be a success. The King and Queen will be announced at the end of the dance.
