French Film To Be At Delman Theatre

On February 28-29

"Ballarina" Shows Vivid Picture of Grim Realities

On Feb. 28-29, the Delman Theatre will screen the film "Ballarina". This film, produced by the National Geographic Society, provides vivid pictures of the grim realities of life in Spain during the Civil War. The story is based on the experiences of two Spanish children, who witness the suffering of their fellow countrymen as a result of the war. The film includes footage of starvation, disease, and destruction, and highlights the courage of the Spanish people in their struggle for freedom.
