Let’s Go ICE SKATING
The debate was no different from any other. Last night’s emotions ran high among the candidates, who at times seemed to be questioning their own faith in the candidates. However, for the student body, the debate was a success, with only girls participating. The Wom- Council passed the Student Council next week, creating a new by-law pertaining to the student body.

Should the petition of the Women’s Council pass next week, the Student Council will be dissolved. This is to allow for a more organized system for student affairs.

In such a selection, the girl to be selected for the position must be a member of the Student Council. If she is not a member, she will be excluded from the selection process.

Another important matter that was discussed was the future of the organization. It was agreed that the Student Council should continue to run the organization, with the Student Council president serving as the liaison between the Student Council and the student body.

The debate was lively, with both sides presenting their arguments. The Student Council president argued that the Student Council had been effective, but the Women’s Council president countered that the Student Council was not effective enough, and that a new system was needed.

The debate ended with a vote, which was won by the Women’s Council. The Student Council president accepted the results and promised to work towards improving the organization.

The debate was a success, with everyone participating and voicing their opinions. The future of the organization is now in the hands of the Women’s Council, and they will be responsible for selecting the next Student Council president.
