Footlights

Vivian, President has been elected for two terms due to the extra demands placed on her by active dealing with the general election ticket. An apology is hereby made to her many ailed student council.

The week's column might be entitled "How to Write Milton's "Paradise Lost". The last in an unsolved series in which General Mowry has我一直 been published weekly. Great literary gems are usually accumulated by earthlings; life is needed to inspire the imagination.

Bogan

The concept of a new administrative system is an attempt to bring order to the chaos that has been caused by the chaos of the current situation. It is hoped that this order will be maintained and that the chaos will be avoided.

The system is designed to bring order to the chaos that has been caused by the chaos of the current situation. It is hoped that this order will be maintained and that the chaos will be avoided.

Constitution

The issues that are to be addressed are:

- The need for an official body to oversee the election process.
- The need for a method of ensuring that the election is conducted fairly.
- The need for a method of ensuring that the election is conducted fairly.

The weekly constitutional amendment is to be published in the Rice Institute Bulletin, and the rules should be made available to the students.

The Rice, Texas Rife Teams to Compete

The University of Texas NROTC team is to compete in the upcoming Scholastic Invitational meet, which will be held in Houston. The team will be represented by 12 students, who will compete in various events.

The team has been developing for the past several weeks, and the members have been working hard to prepare for the meet. The team is confident in its ability to perform well and is looking forward to the competition.

Readers Write

CONSTITUTION

The article proposes several amendments to the existing constitution, which are designed to improve the overall functioning of the organization. These amendments are intended to address the issues that have arisen in recent times, and to ensure that the organization operates effectively.

The amendments include:

- The addition of a new section to the constitution, which outlines the procedures for conducting elections.
- The addition of a new section to the constitution, which outlines the procedures for conducting elections.

The amendments are intended to ensure that the organization operates effectively.

Special Council Meet Validates April 5 Vote

The special council meet was held on April 5 to validate the vote for the renewal of the student body. The vote was held on the basis of the results of the student body survey, which showed that a majority of the students favored the renewal of the student body.

Threat of Election Contest Brings Fast Action by Jennings

In Alfred A. Cleugh—The Rice Institute Bulletin was unified with the student council bulletin. The bulletin was unified with the student council bulletin. The bulletin was unified with the student council bulletin. The bulletin was unified with the student council bulletin.
Proposed Honor Council Constitution

I. Principles

1. The Chairman shall be a member described in Article VII.

2. In the event that a violation of the Honor System is observed by a member of the Student Body or a member of the faculty, that member should proceed to write a signature, sign complaint or report to a member of the Honor Council. The complaint or report shall be made at a closed meeting of the Council in the presence of the accused.

II. Vacancies

1. The Student Body is directly responsible for electing the officers of each Term of the Honor System. In order to uphold the validity of the actions of the Student Body, each school year, a new election should be held on campus, thus ensuring that the student body has the opportunity to participate.

Article V. Absence from Room

1. Students shall be seated in alternate chairs during examinations. If a student is absent during an examination, they must take such steps as are necessary to make up the examination.

III. Suggestions

1. Any breach of the Honor System, as well as any other important project, must be brought to the attention of the Assistant Dean. The Assistant Dean will immediately set a time for a meeting with the Student Council at any time, with subsequent approval of the Student Activities Committee.

Article VIII. Verdict

1. The accused shall at this time enter a plea of "guilty" or "not guilty." If a plea of "not guilty" is entered, a trial will be held in accordance with the By-Laws of the Honor Council.

IV. Amendments

1. The position of the accused under the Honor System is free to enter the room and remain if he is present, and to respect the right of secrecy and the examination paper at the end of the examination. Violations of this rule will be considered for possible suspension or ejection from the room.

V. Duties of Officers

1. The position of the accused under the Honor System is free to enter the room-and remain if he is present, and to respect the right of secrecy and the examination paper at the end of the examination. Violations of this rule will be considered for possible suspension or ejection from the room.

VI. Amendments

1. The position of the accused under the Honor System is free to enter the room-and remain if he is present, and to respect the right of secrecy and the examination paper at the end of the examination. Violations of this rule will be considered for possible suspension or ejection from the room.

VII. Amendments

1. The position of the accused under the Honor System is free to enter the room-and remain if he is present, and to respect the right of secrecy and the examination paper at the end of the examination. Violations of this rule will be considered for possible suspension or ejection from the room.

VIII. Amendments

1. The position of the accused under the Honor System is free to enter the room-and remain if he is present, and to respect the right of secrecy and the examination paper at the end of the examination. Violations of this rule will be considered for possible suspension or ejection from the room.