The Homecoming festivities opened yesterday with the annual alumni banquet and the usual activities. There have been no changes from previous years, Cruikshank announced that the Homecoming Queen would be crowned at the center of the field by Tom Eubank, President of the Student Association, where she will be crowned and presented with gifts from several Houston merchants.

Because of the absence of a track surrounding the 14th annual Cotton Bowl stadium, the Queen will not be driven around the field in a car as in previous years.

The Queen and her court of 22 princesses will be presented at the Homecoming Dance tomorrow night.

Wendell Leg, alumni president, will preside at the opening meeting of the week-end celebration, which will include regular business, a program with James C. Morehead, assistant to the president, and Bob Flagg, assistant alumni secretary, as speakers, and the showing of highlights of the Rice-North Carolina Cotton Bowl film.

Charity Drive

With the most recent announcements of the chief topics of Rice Sioux convention since September, the Charity Committee voted to suppport the Foster Parent Plan for War Orphans.

The last Rice Forum received a majority opinion that if peace is not gone it is going rapidly. Rice will send its money to the a gift. The Charity Committee will provide entertainments of various kinds supported by the organizations on the campus. The pledge of two, five, or ten dollars should not include these activities.

Because our future rests upon these children, a gift to them is a gift to ourselves.

UT Owl Victor May Get Bowl Bid

Winner Has Received Bowl Bid Last 5 Years

If history repeats itself for a fourth straight time, an eventual bowl champion will be determined Saturday afternoon, when the University of Texas invades Rice Institute's fabulous new stadium.

This lively series has produced a bowl winner for the past five seasons, but only in the last four did the victor move on to post-season success. From this rivalry that dates back to 1914 have emerged three Cotton Bowl, one Sugar Bowl and two Orange Bowl Champions in the past five years.

Rice holds a 3-2 edge in victories over that space, but Texas claims the margin on bowl participation, because the Longhorns won on to a 40-17 contest of Minnesota in the 1940 Cotton Bowl game after being victorious in the regular season the Owls.

Rice made it a three in a row over the Owls in 1946 in the last game of 18-13 decisions. Rice wound up in a tie with Arkansas for the Southwest Conference championship that season and went to the Orange Bowl and defeated Tennessee, 6-7, while the Parkers were playing host in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas' most troublesome league rival for the past decades, Rice won 11 of 17 meetings between 1930 and 1947. Then the Longhorns broke the spell, winning 12-10 the first year Blair Cherry was at the helm. That 47 Texas team finished 1949 titlists. Averaging 16 points against Rice's six teams of bygone years. Most of them will be there, or in the cases of the four deceased and a few others who cannot attend because of health or business, a teammate will represent the squad of that year.

Ironically, the former Owl captain who is closest to the school's current athletic program cannot be present. Charlie House, captain and guard on the 1917 SWC championship squad, will head the Owlets against the Texas freshman team Friday night. Ex-Rice Captains To Hold Reunion

The former Rice Institute biggest homecoming day celebration in the school's history will be the former captains of Rice football teams. They in turn will be representing all the members of the Rice grid squad whose efforts on the field through the years put the Rice Owls in the major ranks of college football.

Before a capacity crowd of 70,000 at the Rice-Texas game on Saturday afternoon, these former Rice grid captains or co-captains will be introduced. In all, there are 11 captains or co-captains of Rice teams of bygone years. Most of them will be there, or in the cases of the four deceased and a few others who cannot attend because of health or business, a teammate will represent the squad of that year.

Mooreman Twins Win Eight Letters

The only set of identical twins ever to win eight varsity football letters in the Southwest Conference finish their football careers this fall.

They are ends Bill and Bob Mooreman. In high school, the youngsters played for Coach Joe Coleman at Odessa. Their senior year, Odessa won the state schoolboy title and both Mooremans made most of the All-State teams.

They entered TCU in the fall of 1947, and lettered their first year under the war rules still prevailing and have lettered every year since.

Square Dance

This is the last chance for you to become an active member of the Tuesday night square dance group.

Next Tuesday, Oct. 31, the team has its second meeting. This will be the last that new members can enter this group.

Owl Flag Hopes Depend On Victory Tomorrow

By Joey Horn

Plenty of action should be seen on Rice's new gridiron tomorrow when the Owls meet the University of Texas Longhorns. Splied by Homecoming activities, an overflowing crowd of 70,000 is expected to witness the battle of survival in the Conference race for the Owls, starting at 2:15 p.m.

This year's game according to all the experts, should turn out as another battle royal between the two schools. The Longhorns will be out to revenge the last minute 17-15 beating that the Fighting Owls gave them last year.

Tomorrow's game will be the fifth game of the season for both teams. Texas has a one point 14-13 defeat at the hands of the Oklahoma Sooners to mar their record. The Owls have won over Texas Tech, 28-14; Purdue, 40-24; and last week barely squashed the Arkansas Razorbacks, 18-14, to win their first Conference tilt.

National ratings place Texas in the number 7 spot in the nation for this week. Headed by one of the finest lines in their history, the Texas Longhorns will invade Rice Stadium a heavy favorite to revenge last year's loss by the Owls. It should be the Conference Championship, Big Bud McFadin, 245-pound All-American candidate leads a line that is two deep in returning lettermen.

Averaging approximately 215 pounds per man from end to end, the Texas line will probably be made up of McFadin at guard, Paul Williams and Tom Shishlimachs at ends, Kenneth Jackson and Gene Vytislal at tackles. Joe Arnold at the other guard, and Dick Brown, center. The

The old stadium will be the scene of a freshman game Friday night that may draw as many or more persons that used to see the Rice varsity teams play in comparatively recent years. Officials hope the vanguard of those varsity enthusiasts will turn out for the Owlet-Shorten scrap to threaten or surpass the record 15,000-turnout that saw the Shorten win a free-scoring thriller two years ago. All proceeds from the game above actual expenses will go to the Harris County Fund to fight polio. The motto of the game is "Strong legs will run so that weak foes will run to match them." Despite a flock of fine running backs (similar to the varsity), the SMU frosh made relatively little ground against a good Rice freshman line sparked by defensive stalwarts Walt Schoyer of San Antonio, Emmitt Taylor of Ft. Worth, Kenneth Lewis of Conroe, John Hudson of Center, and several others.

The Owlet line, though, will have another tough assignment. Friday night against several top notch Texas.

Returning Lettermen Bolster Owl Basketball Prospects

Owl cage prospects are definitely looking up this year. Only two lettermen were lost from last year's team—starting forward Warren Switzer and a valuable reserve, Tom Hodgins. These two players will be missed, but Coach Don Suman does not lack for replacements. Suman's returning lettermen include Joe McCormick, Charlie Tague, Ralph Grantham, J. D. White, Jim Gerhardt and Leonard Childs. Returning squadmen are Tom Wharton and Hal DeMoss. Up from the freshman team are Berl Dinham, Art Baker, Maurice Teague, Bill Lynch, and Bill Bailey. The squad is rounded out by juniors Bill Collins and Marvin Froelich.

The roster is well manned by 6 ft. 4 in. Joe McCormick, McMurtro was the high scorer of the 1948 Owl clan, planned to drill McCormick extensively on defense in pre-season practice. Spellings are: Joe McDonald at the first place, will be 6 ft. 3 in. Tom Wharton and 6 ft. 7 in. Bill Bailey and Jim Gerhardt.

Probable starters at the forward slots are Jim Gerhardt and J. D. White. White has been moved up the guard position, 6 ft. 1 in. games for the Dubbs.

Texas Townsend is Triple-Threat

Longhorns have many other standouts in their powerful line, including ace end Jim Procter, and the whole Texas defensive line. As for the backfield, there is plenty of material, and one distinct standout, in Byron Townsend. Including last week's game the hard running Odessa prodigy has amassed 437 yards in 91 carries to hold the third spot in conference rushing totals.

Behind Townsend in the backfield are Ron Tompkins and Don Page at quarterback; Gil Dawson, Bob and Darrell Dorsey, and Art Bass, Lewis Lovett, already ready to run against the Owls.

Texas lost their only game this year to their traditional rivals, the Oklahoma Sooners, 13-14, while winning all of their other games by fairly fine style. Arkansas gave Rice a scare for a while last week but fell to the end 18-14. After dropping last week's game 42-21 to the SMU Mustangs for their first defeat of the season, Rice's Owls will be out to keep in the running for the conference flag.

SMU's Kyle Rote ran wild in last week's game to push himself into leadership of the total yardage gained by individuals in the Conference. The Owls couldn't seem to stop the Potatoe's running game but held their pass offense below normal yardage.

Big George Glanzer was the big gun for the Owls last week as he averaged approximately 10 yards per carry from scrimmage. He scored two touchdowns, and kept the Mustangs guessing all night.

Although three of his passes were intercepted, Vernon Glass continued to connect for yardage against SMU and in now ranked third in pass completions with 28 completions in 48 attempts for a total yardage of 483.

Rice has had hard practices in preparation for this week's game. The Owls who came out of the SMU game in good physical shape, ought to be in top condition for the classic Texas struggle which has seen many great Texas teams fall by the wayside to the Feathered Flock.

The Owls out after their fifteenth game in the series of 36 games some tomorrow afternoon, have never beaten the Texas teams a 18 points. In the last 10 years Rice losses have worn 3 and lost 7 to the Owls.

Littleton and Sledge combined to tally the touchdown for the losers. Working the ball down field to the sakeless Gum's five yard line Littleton hit Sledge with a pass that was good for the score. The final read: Careless Ones 12, Singleton's Silents 7.

The Navy-Sharkeys and the Wolverines host their winning records intact with wins last Monday. Both have won three and lost none and the showdown is due to come soon.

By dropping last week's game 32-13 for their latest win.

Parsons, Johnston, Farris, Turpin, and Wright figured in the Sharkeys scoring that was just too much for the Shinys. Coyne accounted for one; Stud score and a pass from Frost to Ferguson was good for the other.

The Rover Boys have finally hit their stride. In dropping their opening game to the Navy-Sharkeys they have won two straight, both by impressive scores.

Their latest win came at the expense of the Athletes Anonymous, 52-0.

Big Bill Gref was a big difference. He scored on a 20-yard run and passed for scores to Byrd, Greg, and Hudgins twice.

Rice Rifle Team To Be Discussed Thursday Night

The possibility of starting a Rice rifle team will be discussed at a meeting in A.H. 116, Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Increasing student interest in this project prompted the calling of this meeting to discuss the prospects announced John Blakemore, one of the organizers of the prospective club.

"The future prospects for a rifle team at Rice are good," Blakemore said. "The new field house will contain a large, well-constructed range, and we believe that arrangements can be made with the Naval Science Department and school officials to obtain the use of this range as well as target rifles."

"In the past, when similar organizations in other sports have been formed and have proved their worth, the committee on out door activities has recognized the sport and given official athletic recognition and has awarded letters. Next Texas

The Rice Owls went down to the superior power of the Southern Methodist Mustangs, but that doesn’t mean we can’t beat Texas.

The game last week pitied the Big Blue against the best in the Conference and we do not wish to come anything or praise anything that happened in that game except to say that both teams had mistakes for and against them. The Owls capitalized on Mustangs mistakes to up two scores and the Mustangs scored 12 points on two intercepted passes. That game is over and tomorrow Owls face the University of Texas in one of the most intense rivalries in the Southwest Conference. We can be defeated here on the Saturday night.

We can win and the student body must not underestimate them. We must not underestimate them. We must not underestimate them.
