E. B. L. S. TO STUDY
IRISH LITERATURE
FOR COMING YEAR

Monday afternoon at Autry House, the E. B. L. S. met to discuss plans for the coming year. Katherine Tsanoff, chairman of the program committee, announced the theme of literature to be studied will be Irish literature.

Margaret Dudley, president, appointed Peggy Warren chairman of the initiation committee. Initiation will take place at the next meeting.

Margery Boyd, a pledge discovery, sang a song that she had written herself, and Emily Montgomery gave the E. B.'s their first lesson in trucking.
