My dearest Anna Maria

I cannot bear
to let another post pass without acknowledging the receipt of your most welcome & kind
letter which I have delayed answering
until I had a quiet
moment; our house
is still full, but the

Bartholomew leave his next week, when I hope to write you a long letter & tell you
all. — In the mean time I should

so value the hymn
you offer me & I think I can send you some which you will both think worthy of —
place in your collection

being by some of first Masters. —

I will not wait to write more now &
with best love

Believe me

Yours very affectionately

Sophy Masters
