

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH ABOUT C. H. LOWE

Name: Chuan Hua LOWE (prefers to use C. H. Lowe)
Present address: Prince Tower Box 124, 1511 Nuuanu Ave., Honolulu, Hawaii 96817.
Telephone: 536 - 5238.

Born in Nanchang, China, August 2, 1902.

Citizenship: Granted permanent residence status by special act of Congress, August 16, 1954; passed naturalization test, April 3, 1962 and received U. S. citizenship, June 12, 1962.

Academic degrees: Ph. B. in Business Administration, Univ. of Chicago, 1923;
M.S. in L.S., Western Reserve University, 1962.

Experiences:

- 1924-27 Teaching and newspaper work in Central China;
1927-28 Professor of Economics, Chih Tze University, Shanghai;
1928-32 Industrial relations secretary, YMCA National Council of China;
1933-38 Publicity director, China International Famine Relief Commission;
1938-41 Member of editorial staff, Tien Hsia Monthly; concurrently contributing editorial writer for South China Morning Post, Hong Kong;
1941-42 Rangoon representative of Chinese Ministry of Information;
1942-46 Director of Calcutta office, Chinese Ministry of Information;
1946-47 South America representative of Chinese Ministry of Information;
1947-49 Director of Montreal office, Chinese News Service;
1949-52 Consultant on Oriental affairs, Canadian Pacific Airlines;
1952-54 Editor and researcher, The Asia Foundation, San Francisco; and for sometime editor-in-chief of The Asian Student;
1954-56 Pacific coast representative of China Institute in America;
1956-61 Counselor (in charge of information and lecturing services) for the Chinese Embassy, Washington, D. C.;
1961-62 Library assistant in Case Institute of Technology, and concurrently graduate student in Western Reserve University;
1962-63 Passed U.S. Civil Service Commission examination for librarianship (GS 7, numerical rating 90.0), and joined U.S. Department of Labor library as cataloger;
1963-64 Cataloger, University of California library, Riverside campus;
1965-67 Head cataloger, University of California library, Santa Cruz campus;
1967 (Oct.) - Head of Serials Cataloging Dept., Catalog Division, and subsequently 1970 (Oct.) Special Collections cataloger, Stanford University, California.

Writings and publications:

1. Facing Labor Issues in China, with introd. by Julean Arnold, U.S. Commercial Attache in China. London, Allen & Unwin, 1934.
 2. Japan's Economic Offensive in China, with introd. by Senator Paul H. Douglas. London, Allen & Unwin, 1939.
 3. Labor conditions and problems in China (in Chinese). Shanghai, Association Press, 1934.
 4. The Yunnan-Burma Highway (a pamphlet). Chungking, China Pub. Co., 1939.
 5. China's Factory Law (an English translation, with commentaries, done in collaboration with Norman F. Allman). Shanghai, China Weekly Review, 1933.
 6. China's Twenty-five Year Struggle Against Communism (a monograph). Montreal, Chinese Government Information Office, 1948.
 7. A Time to Advance, Not to Retreat - a collection of speeches 1956-1961. Taipei, Free China Review Press, 1962.
- Etc.

Special interests and qualifications: 1. Traveled extensively in Asia, South America, Europe, Canada and the United States; 2. for several years lecturer on Far Eastern affairs; and 3. considerable experience in editorial and publications work.