BIOGRAPHY

BENJAMIN ZANDER, artistic director, cellist, conductor and renowned teacher, has been a member of the New England Conservatory for the past twenty-four years. He has been the conductor of the Youth Chamber Orchestra of the Preparatory School for more than a decade and has led the orchestra on highly successful tours to Russia, Rumania, Poland and Austria. He is the founder and conductor of the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra and regularly conducts the New England Conservatory Symphony Orchestra as well as other groups throughout New England. Mr. Zander left school at age fifteen to become a student, and later assistant, of the great Spanish cello virtuoso Gaspar Cassadó in Florence, Italy and at the State Conservatory in Cologne, Germany. He graduated with high honors in English Literature from London University and subsequently did post-graduate work in musicology at Harvard University and at Mannes College in New York on a Harkness International Fellowship. He has been on the faculty of several schools and has traveled widely as a conductor, master class teacher and lecturer.
