GUEST ARTIST RECITAL

WILLIAM RACE, Piano

Monday, November 18, 1991
8:00 p.m.
Lillian H. Duncan Recital Hall

RICE UNIVERSITY
PROGRAM

Sonata in B♭ Major, K. 570
Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart
(1756-1791)

Allegro
Andante
Allegretto

Des pas sur la neige
Claude Debussy
(1862-1918)

Minstrels

L’isle joyeuse

INTERMISSION

Variations (1964)
Jacques Hétu
(b. 1938)

Polonaise-Fantaisie in A♭ Major, Op. 61
Frédéric Chopin
(1810-1849)

Hungarian Rhapsody No. 10
Franz Liszt
(1811-1886)
BIOGRAPHY

WILLIAM RACE holds the Priscilla Pond Flawn Regents Professorship in Piano at The University of Texas at Austin. He has held teaching residencies at leading conservatories in Japan, Poland, Russia, and China, and has been invited to give master classes in many of the most noted music schools in the United States. William Race’s students have won many prizes in national and international competitions, and their concert engagements have won them enthusiastic press reviews in major metropolitan centers throughout the world. William Race records for Musical Heritage, Orion, and Educo.