REBECCA BRAGG is a sophomore at St. John's School. She began her violin studies twelve years ago with Judy Offman and now studies with Kenneth Goldsmith. At the age of nine, she won first place in the Houston Music Teachers Association Concerto Competition. She was a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra for two seasons, winning second place in the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra Concerto Competition in the Spring of 1994. During the last two summers she attended Greenwood Music Camp. Rebecca also plays piano and enjoys volleyball, acting, and singing.

CHAERIM KIM, sixteen, is a junior at Memorial High School. She was a member of the Houston Youth Symphony and is presently a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra. She has participated in the Region XI, Area, and All-State Orchestras. She won fourth place in the Houston Music Teachers Association Concerto Competition, and an honorable mention in the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra Concerto Competition. She is a student of Kenneth Goldsmith, and her previous teachers include Pamela Klingensmith and Si-Yang Lao. She has participated in many summer camps, including Killington Music Festival, SMU-in-Taos, and ENCORE School for Strings, where she studied with Victor Danchenko.

FIA MANCINI is seventeen years old and has been playing the violin for ten years, the past four as a student of Kenneth Goldsmith. Former teachers include Joyce Durfee, Jan Coleman, and Christine Pastorek. This past year Fia performed the Glazunov Violin Concerto with the Clear Lake Symphony, the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra, and the HSPVA Symphony as a result of winning their competitions. This season she will perform Mozart's Fifth Concerto with the Houston Youth Symphony. Fia is a Senior at HSPVA and serves as Concertmaster of the orchestra.

KRISTI HELBERG began her violin studies in 1987 with Mary West at the McPhail Center of Music in Minneapolis. In 1993 she continued her studies in Houston with Inga Ingver, a Shepherd School graduate student, and began working with Kenneth Goldsmith in 1995. Kristi is a junior at the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts and is a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra. She studied this summer at the 1996 Angel Fire Music Festival in New Mexico with Mr. Goldsmith.
