JOSHUA L. HALLMAN is eleven years old and began his violin studies with Joyce Durfee when he was four. He continued with Zachary Carrettin and now is with Kenneth Goldsmith. He performed with the Texas Young Virtuosos on two European tours and at the White House. Joshua was a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra and was an honor student at Second Baptist School. He is presently being home-schooled.

CHAERIM KIM is a senior at Memorial High School. She was a member of the Houston Youth Symphony and is presently a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra. She has participated in the Region XI, Area, and All-State Orchestras. She won fourth place in the Houston Music Teachers Association Concerto Competition, and an honorable mention in the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra Concerto Competition. She is a student of Kenneth Goldsmith, and her previous teachers include Pamela Klingensmith and Si-Yang Lao. She has participated in many summer camps, including Killington Music Festival, SMU-in-Taos, and ENCORE School for Strings, where she studied with Victor Danchenko. Last year Chaerim won the Southwest Region of the MTNA High School Concerto Competition and performed Bruch's Scottish Fantasy with the Waco Symphony Orchestra.

JOHANNA CHAN is thirteen years old and a freshman at Bellaire High School. She studied piano for six years beginning at the age of four and began her violin studies at the age of seven. In the past, she has been the winner of HMTA piano concerto competitions as well as the string concerto competition. She enjoys composing, and her works have won numerous awards including first place in the TMTA original composition in 1993. She has been a member of the Houston Youth Symphony for the past five years and has served as concertmaster in the Philharmonic and String Orchestras. Her former teachers include Jane Sugars for piano and Hong Chou for violin. She has been studying violin with Mr. Goldsmith since 1996.

KRISTI HELBERG began her violin studies in 1987 with Mary West at the McPhail Center of Music in Minneapolis. In 1993 she continued her studies in Houston with Inga Ingver, a Shepherd School graduate student, and began working with Kenneth Goldsmith in 1995. Kristi is a senior at the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts and is a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra. Last year she was the concerto winner for both the Clear Lake Symphony and the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra Competitions.

OLEN RAMBOW studied piano at Johnston Middle School under Jan Taylor for three years and was briefly a student of Pamela Shank before taking up studies with Dean Shank over a year ago. As an art student at Johnston Middle School, Olen won first place in the state of Texas in the U.S. Savings Bond poster contest in 1993. That same year he won first place in the Houston Independent School District Fine Arts Festival, Junior Division, in ink drawing, and second place in painting. He is presently an eleventh grade piano student at The High School for Performing and Visual Arts. Last summer he attended Interlochen where he studied with Steve Perry.

K.C. LUKENS, a student of Dean Shank at the Shepherd School Preparatory Program, is a tenth grade honor student at St. John's School. There he plays piano in the Jazz Band and is on the Junior Varsity Football, Freshman Basketball, and Junior Varsity Lacrosse teams. He is the oldest of five sons and lives in West University. He volunteers as a teacher's assistant at the Museum of Natural Science, is a scorekeeper for West University Little League, and is a linesman for the West University Soccer Club.

This recital is given in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the young artist certificate course UPBEAT.
