JOHANNA CHAN is thirteen years old and a freshman at Bellaire High School. She studied piano for six years beginning at the age of four and began her violin studies at the age of seven. In the past, she has been the winner of HMTA piano concerto competitions as well as the string concerto competition. She enjoys composing, and her original works have won numerous awards including first place in the TMTA competition in 1993. She has been a member of the Houston Youth Symphony for the past five years and has served as concertmaster in the Philharmonic and String Orchestras. Her former teachers include Jane Sugars for piano and Hong Chou for violin. She has been studying violin with Mr. Goldsmith since 1996.

KRISTI HELBERG began her violin studies in 1987 with Mary West at the McPhail Center of Music in Minneapolis. In 1993 she continued her studies in Houston with Inga Ingver, a Shepherd School graduate student, and began working with Kenneth Goldsmith in 1995. Kristi is a senior at the High School for the Performing and Visual Arts and is a member of the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra. Last year she was the concerto winner for both the Clear Lake Symphony and the Greater Houston Youth Orchestra Competitions.

ELIZABETH (Liz) GULLIVER LUNDE, seventeen, has played the violin for seven years. Born in St. Louis, Missouri, Liz studied with Jenny Jones of the St. Louis Symphony and Yuri Ilyashov, former first violinist of the Minsk Orchestra in the Soviet Union. Liz also studied advanced piano with Laura Schindler of Fontbonne College in St. Louis. After moving to Houston in 1994, Liz studied violin with Eric Halen of the Houston Symphony. Since August 1997, she has studied in the Shepherd School Preparatory Program with Zachary Carrettin and Kenneth Goldsmith. Liz performed in the Alice-Flores Sonata Competition, winning third place in violin in 1996 and honorable mention in 1997. This year she placed third in the Houston Music Teachers Association Senior Violin Competition. Liz was Concertmaster at the University of Texas-Austin Summer Music Camp Orchestra in 1997. Currently she is in the National Honor Society and the Latin National Honor Society at Cypress Falls High School, where she is a junior. She belongs to several clubs, including the Latin Club and Future Medical Careers, and she volunteers at local elementary schools, Cypress Fairbanks Medical Center, and Bear Creek Library. Her college goal is to study music.

KIMARA KUSPA began her cello studies two years ago. She is ten years old and is involved in Girl Scouts, martial arts, art, and creative writing. Last summer Kimara participated in the Suzuki Conservatory Program led by Diane Bonds. Kimara is a student of Lisa Vosdoganes in the Shepherd School Preparatory Program.

JORDAN KUSPA is a home-schooled twelve-year old who has been studying cello with Lisa Vosdoganes for three years, the past two in the Shepherd School Preparatory Program. He began his cello studies in California when he was five years old. Jordan has a purple belt in Karate, is a Boy Scout, loves studying paleontology, and is a member of the Houston Youth Symphony Philharmonic Orchestra. Jordan is a student of Lisa Vosdoganes in the Shepherd School Preparatory Program.
